

Why not get a locker of the Co-operative Book Co. and prevent any possibility of having your books stolen. Only 10c a month.

L. L. Mead has moved his cigar and news stand from 127 South 11th street to the basement of the Richards block, cor. O and Eleventh.

The Elite Studio gives special rates to students; the only ground floor studio in the city. Mr. Townsend is reliable, give him a call.

Do you know that the only man who is making a straight $2.25 rate for the highest finish Photographs is Andrews, Students Gallery, 1034 O street.

Students will now find convenient lockers furnished by the Co-operative Book Company. You never need go bookless any more if you have got the requisite price.

Go to Frey & Frey, 114 South Twelfth street, for choice roses, carnations, and all cut flowers, decorations and blooming plants.
114 South 12th St.

Students try Mead's for first-class cigars. Under the Richards block, corner Eleventh and O Streets. He also has on sale all the leading magazines.

We advise students to buy books at the Lincoln Book Exchange, 134 S. 12th street. Second-hand University books a specialty. Books of all kinds bought and sold.

A FOUNTAIN PEN.

The users of fountain pens need only to try one of the celebrated Waterman Fountain Pens in order to become its friends. It combines good workmanship with good material and is by far the best pen in the market. Call at Co-operative Book Co's. and have its superiority over all others explained to you.

EXCHANGE.

Yale's Law School course has been extended from two to three years.—Ex.

Sophomore (at home on a vacation)—
"Father, what is the difference between a man who dyes wool and an editor?"

Father (with conscious pride)—"Give it up, my son."

"Well, one is a lamb dyer and the other is a——"

"What? What? My son!"

"An editor, father."—Ex.

"How is it with you?" asked the editor of a subscriber who was dying in arrears. "All looks bright before me," gasped the subscriber. "I thought so," said the editor. "In about ten minutes you'll see the blaze." Ex.—

The University of Michigan has fifty of its own graduates in its faculty.—Ex.

John Rockefeller presented the University of Chicago with a New Year's gift of $175,000.

An Orientalist in complimenting some tea made in the latest and most approved fashion, instead of saying "It is very delicate," averred "It is very nimble," which, in a few days, will become good American slang.

Daniel Webster was editor-in-chief of the first college paper in the United States. It was published at Dartmouth.—Ex.

The half hundred co-eds at Adrian College have decided to aid in the construction of the new gymnasium by earning one dollar apiece. Among the devices adopted is that of mending the socks of the male students. The price started at ten cents a pair, according to notices posted on the outside doors in the female dormitory, but the girls soon began cutting the price and now five cents will secure a good job. The girls will shortly hold an experience meeting at which each will relate in detail how her dollar was earned.—Ex.