EDITORIAL.

FIELD day this year promises to be the best we have ever had. Mr. Cameron has worked hard, and as a result there are more entries and better prizes than on any previous year. Next Saturday there is nothing else going on, and every student who has or can borrow the necessary quarter should be at the fair grounds to see our athletes do their best. The University realizes the need of general athletics, and there is no better way of showing our admiration for, and sympathy with, this side of college life than by attending field day and applauding every worthy effort.

THE second annual concert of the Glee Club will be given at one of the opera houses next week. Until recently the future of the club has been very doubtful; but if this season is finished without a serious break there is every reason to believe that this organization will be a permanent one, and, in a year or two, be as essential to our existence as are the glee clubs of eastern schools. The boys are prepared to give a first-class concert, and we feel sure that they will have an even larger and more enthusiastic audience than greet the Dramatic Club performance. We understand that the Banjo Club will also play, which will make the concert doubly enjoyable and worthy of patronage.

Our University people generally make a success of anything they undertake. The eager reception which the first number of the Nebraska Literary Magazine has received proves that this venture is no exception. It could hardly be otherwise than successful
