

Now in foot-ball Nebraska is right in the swim,
 And Kansas we left in the rear;
 And we beat Iowa on last Thanksgiving day,
 And the pennant we hold for a year.
 But when on the field we met Doane-Holly Gee!
 They swiped us but just how we never could see,
 But if next year they beat us the reason will be
 That the man in the moon's gone to sleep.

CHORUS.

When the man in the moon goes to sleep!
 When the man in the moon goes to sleep!
 The library building I think will be done,
 When the man in the moon goes to sleep.

PALLADIAN-SENIOR BANQUET.

Last night the Palladians followed their time-established custom, and gave the Seniors a farewell banquet which will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable of a long series of pleasurable social and intellectual events. The fêted ones were Misses Etta Gray, Ella McCrosky, Lula Bell, Anna Treat, and Messrs. C. R. Welden, B. C. Matthews, A. N. Moody, R. L. Cheney, from the Academic College; and Messrs. C. M. Skiles and F. B. Kinyon, of the Law School.

The following responded to suitable toasts: Prof. Foster, C. R. Welden, C. M. Skiles, Etta Gray, Mary Edwards, Flora Bullock, and G. F. Fisher.
