

orado, where a splendid opening offered itself in his cousin's office. We are glad Lawrie decided to stay with us and become "an economist just like Professor Taylor."

New students who find that they are not far enough advanced to enter the State University should enter the Chamberlain Commercial College, Lansing Theatre block.

Ed Nicholson has accepted a position in the department of chemistry of the University of Minnesota. E. C. Elliott, '95 will do graduate work in chemistry this year and look after the "prep" laboratory.

Special attention given to hair dressing, shampooing, manicuring, and face treatment, for clear complexion, also a large assortment of hair goods, ornaments, back combs and side combs. 1114 O st., Mrs. Gosper.

Martha Chappell has secured a school for next year. A young man who should have graduated with '95 but who taught at Weeping Water and is now going out with '96, curses his fate.

B. C. Matthews spent the summer in Kansas. He looks much improved in health, in spite of his deceptive upper lip. He will have charge of "Welden's club" this year, (if the aforesaid lip does not interfere) and study law "between meals."

THE HESPERIAN deeply regrets that it must announce to the students the death, about August 1, of Mr. Tufts, at his home in Kearney. In the death of Mr. Tufts the class of '96 has lost an earnest, conscientious student and a splendid young man.

Do you want to make up Latin, algebra, geometry, ancient history, general history, or rhetoric? Then don't go way out of town and get away from civilization, but register immediately in the State University preparatory course in Chamberlain's Commercial College, Lansing Theatre block.

Students' Club, 1029 R St.

Students who desire first class board at the very low rate of $2.25 a week, should call at 1029 R street, near the University Mr. McDill proprietor.

Every one should attend the joint society reception to be held Friday night, September 20th. The presidents of the various societies—Miss Boose of the Palladians, Miss Horn of the Delians, and Mr. McGuffey of the Unions—have appointed committees to take charge. Every one will receive a hearty welcome and be made to feel at home.

Ben Matthews is rustling entrees to the debates and is meeting with much encouragement. From the present outlook it appears that there are many candidates for debating honors.

Old students of the Uni. are more than pleased to see two of our former teachers back again. Miss Mary Tremain returns fresh from Oxford to instruct in English History, and Prof. Avery from Heidelberg. New members of the faculty are as follows: Prof. McLeod, English; Prof. Luckly, Pedagogy, and Capt. Guilfogle of the military department.

J. A. Abbott, brother of Ned, has been very low with typhoid fever, but we are glad to learn that he is getting better.

