

the great Y. M. C. A. building. Previously Mr. Williams has given some very fine recitals and now that he has new rooms and better facilities we are confident his work will be of a still higher order. A college of oratory is highly appropriate in Lincoln, "the Athens of the West," and we heartily wish it success.

Lost and Won.

Last years' students, and particularly members of the English Club, will note with regret the absence of Miss Elizabeth Russell. Our loss is the gain of Rev. Alvin M. Hendee of Cozad, Nebraska.

The wedding of Rev. Hendee and Miss Russell took place at 3 o'clock on Tuesday, August 27th, at the home of the bride's father, 1113 H street. The wedding march was played by Miss Elizabeth Huston on Schuyler, Nebraska, the former home of Miss Russell. Miss Katharine Melick of Davey, Neb., was bridesmaid, and Rev. W. H. Parker of Utica, stood as best man. A most impressive service was performed by Rev. Dr. James M. Wilson, pastor of the Castelar Presbyterian church of Omaha. Colonel Russell gave the bride away.

It was a very quiet wedding, only the immediate friends of the family being present.

The following morning, Rev. and Mrs. Hendee departed for Cozad, Neb., where the groom is pastor of the Presbyterian church of that place.

Students who have had the good fortune to know Mrs. Hendee during her short stay at the University, will not soon forget her grace of manner, or her excellent literary work. The best wishes of THE HESPERIAN go with bride and groom to their western home.

WELLS-PILLSBURY.

On Tuesday, September 10th, Miss Helen M. Wells, '97, was married to Mr. W. H. Pillsbury, '96, at the home of the bride's parents in Salem, Neb. Some of their large circle of University friends may be surprised but none the less pleased to hear of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury have returned to the University and intend pursuing their school-work. THE HESPERIAN joins with their many friends in extending congratulations to the happy couple.

Happily Married.

THE HESPERIAN clips the following from The Church Record: "A very quiet, but none the less happy wedding took place since the last issue of The Record. Mr. Lucius A. Bumstead, of the firm of Paine, Warfel & Bumstead, and Miss Julia H., eldest daughter of Deacon and Mrs. A. S. Prescott, were married at the home of the bride, 1605 E street, Wednesday, August 21st, at noon. The ceremony was preformed by Rev. O. A. Williams, of Minneapolis, Minn., and the couple left the same afternoon for a trip to Chicago. Although not entirely unexpected, the wedding was a surprise to many outside the circle of immediate friends. Only relatives and a few invited guests were present and it was simple and unostentatious in the extreme. This is the kind of wedding, you know, in which the whole church takes an active interest. It's progress and preceeding developments have been watched very carefully, I dare say, by many friends, and it is a positive pleasure to see such earnest workers who have grown up among us, united for life, for mutual helpfulness and greatest happiness."

Miss Prescott was one of the brightest members of the class of '97, and Mr. Bumstead is known to most Uni. boys as one of the genial proprietors of Paine, Warfel & Bumstead, the clothiers.

Our new Chancellor is an author of no mediocre ability. Among his publications are "Relfrick's Anglo-Saxon Version of Alcuin's Treastise on Genesis," "Text of Zapitza's Old and Middle English Reader," "An Introductory Course in Old English," "Old Middle English."