

C. D. Schell, '91, was married during August to Miss Clark, one of the teachers in the Ashland schools. Future home, Beatrice.

Frank D. Eager, '93, chairman county central committee of the people's party; also secretary of people's state central committee.

Theophil Brugger, '92, and Ernest Gerard have gone to Germany, the former to study philology the latter to prepare for a literary career.

Geo. Sheldon, '92, and Miss Rose Higgins, '93, were married at the residence of the bride's parents in Sterling, Ill., September, 1895.

Miss Bessie Tuttle, a former Uni. student, is teacher of fine arts in the new Lincoln Polytechnique institute. Miss Tuttle has been studying art in Chicago for the last three years.

Miss Sara Schwab, '91, was married September 11, to Mr. Herman Deutsch of Beatrice. The old Jewish ceremony was used, the beauty and quaintness of which had a very pleasing effect upon those present.

Walter Van Fleet Hoagland whose recent bereavement has gained for him the sincerest sympathy of his many University friends, is pessimistically drowning his sorrows in a feverish Rustle for office in Lincoln county.

Among the teachers in the Lincoln high school are found the names of the following University people: Mrs. Ada Atkinson, '91; Miss Gene Getner, '92; Miss Hattie Town, '95; A. F. Montmorency, '95; C. F. Beckman, '95; De Alton Saunders, '93.

A very pretty double wedding occurred at Talmage, Neb., June 19, in which C. J. Elmore, '95, was united in marriage with Miss Anna Allen and Miss May Elmore, '97, with Mr. Hubert Burruss, editor and business manager of the Semi-Weekly World-Herald.

Chas. B. Goodell, a one-time member of class of '92, nominated for county clerk in Saline county—republican; Geo. M. Spurlock, a student of U. of N. in the '80's, nominated for county judge in Cass county—republican; W. V. Hoagland, nominee of republicans for county superintendent of schools at his home, North Platte.

THE SENIORS—WHERE THEY'VE BEEN AT AND WHAT THEY'VE BEEN AT.

Ned Abbott, makin' a Vergil class wretched.

Eva Ricketts, readin' Vergil like a Trojan and attendin' picknicks.

Jocularius Hilarius Searson, teachin' vertical penmanship down at Ashland.

John Henry McGuffey, hustlin' pumpkins and sparkin' girls down at Palmyra.

May Whiting, coachin' in English literature. Her subject, Charles Pullis.

Doc Abbott, makin' horse trades, visitin' Spirit Lake and actin' as deputy superintendent at insane asylum.

Harvey Newbranch, accompanyin' Doc on his summer voyage—a sort of Sancho Panza. On his return makin' up for lost time out on Dudley street.

Locals.

Babcock will teach at Palmyra this year.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

Go to Rector's for your ice cream soda.

A. W. Phillips visited relatives in Indiana.

A. W. Carpenter will enter Cornell '98 this fall.

Alexander made up some English literature.

Corey, Lunn, Rhodes and Elmore attended the Y. M. C. A. summer school at Lake Geneva.

Johnson Graves will be back in school this year.