

Gloves at 1008 O street.

Go to Rector's for your ice cream soda.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

The Palladians expect to have a party in the near future.

Students should patronize Westerfield, the tolasorial artist.

We are glad to report Miss Rena Chappell who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever is convalescent.

For the cleanest and best made up clothing that are fitters, go to the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115-1117 O street.

All the old students will return to their old boarding place, 1029 R. Why don't you try the same place? Students club, $2.25 a week.

Keene Abbott feelingly: Well, but, Mrs. Manning, if a fellow was proposing to a girl and saying all those things, would he look in her eyes? I wouldn't. I'd be too blamed scared.

Ten Tallyho parties have already been arranged for to attend the foot ball game November 2nd. $1.10 is the rate made by the Burlington to Omaha and return on this date.

The Berlin Cloak Co. give special invitation to the students to call and inspect the elegant line of ladies' jackets, fur and cloth capes. Latest styles and lowest prices. 1114 O street.

Mr. Corey's brother is very low with typhoid fever in Falls City this state. Steve went down there last Wednesday. He will remain with his brother until he is better, which we hope will not be long.

If satan ever torture schemes
More dire than Hade's fire,
He'll sentence those to sophomore themes
Gainst whom he vents his ire.
If thus for sin sophs can't atone
He will their griefs enhance,
He'll carve their credits deep in stone
Who watch their own Prof. dance.

Go to the Glove store 1008 O street, the best and the cheapest.

See Dr. Hodgman for first-class dental work at very low prices.

Don't fail to call and examine the fine line of cloaks at Mrs. Gaspers, 1114 O St.

The Seniors are thinking of adopting silk tiles and canes as an insigma of their rank.

The best quality regulation drill gloves are 10c at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115, 1117 O street.

Now is the time to buy fall overcoats, we have them cheap. Independence Wool Mfg. Co., 119 North 13th st.

The Kuhlman Bros. left Monday for Grand Island where they will harvest the immense beet crop cultivated during the summer vacation.

J. C. Porterfield, 92' sends us the long green for one subscription for which THE HESPERIAN is duly thankful. Mr. Porterfield is located in Los Cerrillos, New Mexico.

Abe Chappell who went to Colorado for his health, is making his parents a short visit here in Lincoln. The halls seem natural again with his blooming countenance to light their dark passages.

For good, stylish-made-to-order suits see the Independence Wool Manufacturing Co., Geo. W. Fraser, manager, 119 North 13th street. We manufacture our own cloth and have a first class tailoring department. We turn out nothing but first class.

Every student should have attended the races at least one day this week. Never before in this state has there been a chance to see such speedy goers. One is neglecting an important part of his education when one remains cooped up in a library or a class room when the very best horses in the world are within reach of a 50 cent piece. You may think you see horses every day when you see the lumbering jades of our streets—behold Alix or Robert J., and be undeceived.