

Misses Hitchman and Andrus of Weeping Water high school were welcome visitors at the University last week,

For the cleanest and best made up clothing that are fitters, go to the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115-1117 O street.

The Kuhmann brothers are back from their home in Grand Island where they spent a couple of weeks harvesting their sugar beets.

All the old students have returned to their old boarding place, 1029 R. Why don't you try the same place? Students club, $2.25 a week.

J. F. Boomer went home to vote the "pop" ticket. He created much enthusiasm during the campaign by promulgating populist doctrine.

The following committee to consider the advisability of having a summer school have been appointed: Bessey, Barber, Nicholson, Luckey and Wolfe.

I flunked in Prof. Wolfe's last exam.
Psychology is no hoax;
But after this, outside of class
I'll write HESPERIAN jokes.

The Berlin Cloak Co. give special invitation to the students to call and inspect the elegant line of ladies' jackets, fur and cloth capes. Latest styles and lowest prices. 1114 O street.

In the State Journal of November 11 appeared a poem of merit by the Rev. Hendee. Mr. Hendee will be remembered as the gentleman to whom Miss Elizabeth Russel was married last summer.

Perhaps it is not generally known that a member of the class of '96 has been for some time engaged as pastor of the Christian church of Waterloo, Nebraska. Mr. F. F. Cook is the gentleman we mention. Three years ago he took up the work, and his friends are more than gratified to learn that during the last summer his church received forty-five new members into communion.

The following resolution was passed by the Freshmen boys at their last meeting.

Resolved; That we Freshmen boys in meeting assembled, hereby challenge the boys of the Sophomore class to a game of foot-ball, time and place to be determined by the managers of the teams.

For good, stylish-made-to-order suits see the Independence Wool Manufacturing Co., Geo. W. Fraser, manager, 119 North 13th street. We manufacture our own cloth and have a first class tailoring department. We turn out nothing but first class.

Geo. R. Spurlock, a former University student, now living at Plattsmouth, has just closed a successful candidacy for county judge of Cass county on the republican ticket. THE HESPERIAN congratulates the young judge and wishes him unqualified judicial success.

On Friday, November 8, a very pretty informal party occurred in the Sigma Chi rooms, Halter block. All the active members of the chapter with their fair ones were present and had a jolly time. Dancing was indulged in to the excellent music rendered by Mrs. Clarkson.

Visitors to the Union society programs of last year will certainly remember Miss Dora Zediker, the sweet singer. They may also remember Mr. Eddie Gunn. Both of them moved to Alabama some time last summer, and now the HESPERIAN has the pleasure of announcing their wedding, and of extending congratulations to the happy couple.

Abe Chappell was shaking hands with old friends around the halls last week. Abe has been attending the Colorado school of mines at Golden where he was obliged to go on account of his health. He says he would much prefer to attend the University as the school of mines is not peopled with "co-eds." The only compensation he has for his college loneliness, he says, is the number of fair acquaintances in the city.