

J. E. Leyda, class of '95, visited the department one day last week. He is dictating briefs at Fall City, Neb.

The department enjoyed a three days vacation last week. This was to allow the boys to go home and "save the country."

H. H. Wilson was absent last Tuesday, trying a case in York county. Whenever he is not present the class chooses one of its own members to preside.

A. J. Weaver made several campaign speeches in Richardson county. It is needless to say that the republicans carried everything down there, thanks to Art's oratory.

Mr. Placek of the Junior class gave a new definition for a bankrupt, he says "a bankrupt is one who owes more than he has." According to this there must be several bankrupts in school.

Action was recently taken by the Maxwell club, providing for an open session the last meeting of each term. All the boys are to bring their wives and sweet hearts, and outsiders are cordially invited.

A. A. Hatch was in the city last week. He is now at Hayes Center, Nebraska, but contemplates moving further west in a month or two. He was wearing a silk hat and looked as though he possessed a profitable practice.

The Dean was out of town and Mr. Robbins had charge of the class in Elementary Law. Mr. Robbins—"Here is the Dean's lecture; it is not type written. The members of the class will have access to it when they are dismissed."

The Maxwell club met in regular session last Saturday night. The chief business of the evening was the adoption of a new constitution. The boys showed their enthusiasm for everything pertaining to parliamentary practice by making motions, proposing amendments and raising points of order. Mr. Castor the president remained cool through it all, ruling with an impartial hand. To show their appreciation for his fairness the members of the club passed the following resolution: "Be it resolved that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Castor for the efficient manner in which he presided over the club to-night" Some slight changes were made in the constitution, the principal one being with regard to officers. Hereafter the election will be held at the beginning of each term instead of every four weeks.

The Junior law students class organization was effected Saturday morning 11-9-95. The following officers were elected for the first term. Mr. Wm. Hayward, president, M. F. Manvill, vice-president, D. S. Wilson, secretary, G. H. Risser, sergeant at arms, and B. Coleman, treasurer. "Dad" told the class that he worked hard for others that his name might be presented for so important an office, which is a plausible excuse for rules advanced bearing on organizations of deliberate bodies.

VISITOR (to guide)—Who is that young man? He steps as high as though he were blind-folded.

GUIDE (carelessly)—Oh, he's a cadet captain; the new uniforms have come.

A Fifty-Cent Calendar Free.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion are sending free to the subscribers to the paper, a handsome four-page calendar, 7x10 in., lithographed in nine colors. It is made up of four charming pictures, each pleasing in design, under each of which are the monthly calendars for the year 1896. The retail price of this calendar is 60 cents.

New subscribers to The Companion will receive this beautiful calendar free and besides, The Companion free every week until January 1, 1896. Also the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers free, and The Companion fifty-two weeks, a full year, to January 1, 1897.

Address, THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
195 Columbus Ave., Boston.