

The latest organization in University circles came out on "Turkey Transmigration Day" at the "Dew." It calls itself the "Theosophy Club and will devote Sunday afternoons to a study of mahatmas and astral bodies and all that sort of thing. H. B. Alexander is president of the club and H. E. Newbranch secretary.

The Delta Gamma society held an initiation and banquet a week ago last Monday—the former taking place at the home of Miss Cochran and the latter at the home of Miss Gregory. The initiates were Miss Walton, of Blair; Miss Parks, of Iowa, and Miss Slaughter of Lincoln. A pledge was also received from Miss Welch.

Members of the faculty are doing an inestimable amount of good for higher education and the University in the numerous addresses throughout the state. During the vacation the following addresses were made: Professor Fossler, at Crawford; Professor Barbour, at Omaha; Chancellor MacLean, at Minden; Professor Fling, at Omaha.

William Reed Dunroy expects to give a series of reading this winter somewhat similar to the course given last year. November 21st he addressed a large and appreciative audience at Tecumseh. THE HESPERIAN wishes Mr. Dunroy the best of success.

Two weeks ago today Professor Fling addressed a teachers institute at Palmyra, on "Methods of Historical Study," and in the evening he spoke before the public school of the town. Too much credit cannot be given to Professor Fling in bringing the high schools of our state into doing efficient preparatory historical work. We are glad to be able to report that under Dr. Fling's persistent efforts a change for the better is gradually taking place.

The Companion Calendar for 1896.

The Publishers of the THE YOUTH'S COMPANION are sending to their subscribers free an art Calendar which will be highly appreciated. Four elegant water-color paintings are reproduced in all the beauty of color and design of the originals, and of such size (7½x10 inches) that may be framed with fine effect.

The first two pictures offer a striking contrast—a blustering March day in the sugar orchard, and a peaceful scene in mid-summer. Then follows the noonday rest in the harvest field, a charming bit of color with a foreground of goldenrod and brilliant autumn foliage. The winter walk to church over the snow-covered fields is the last of the series.

To all new subscribers to the paper who send their name and address and $1.75 at once, the Publishers offer to send free this handsome Calendar, lithographed in nine colors, the retail price of which is 50 cents, The Companion free every week to January 1, 1896, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years double numbers, and The Youth's Companion fifty-two weeks, a full year to January 1, 1897. Address,
 THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
 195 Columbus Avenue, Boston.
