

Mr. W. L. Williams '96 Law, is practicing at Beatrice. In a letter to C. E. Matson he says: "Collections are good; I am still unmarried but——."

Call and see us in our new shop at 1144 O street. R. & C.

Mr. F. L. Bert is confined to his room from an attack of nervous prostration.

Rev. Bradley addressed the University Newman (Catholic) society last Friday evening.

The Kansas & Nebraska Fuel Co. guarantees its coal to be the best for the money expended.

Prof. W. G. Langworthy Taylor addressed the Political Economy Club Tuesday evening.

1330 O street. Jas. Kolbach custom shoe shop.

The Y. M. C. A. Glee Club spent Sunday afternoon entertaining the patients of the insane asylum.

Fifty cents for the HESPERIAN the remainder of the school year.

Hon. Thomas Rawlins of Wakefield, the new member of the board of regents, was a university visitor last week.

The P. B. D. C. has chosen G. E. Kindler, H. B. Stewart and D. N. Garber as its representatives in the debate with Doane.

Ray Stoner returned to school Tuesday. He has just returned from a four months trip in Germany.

Do you eat to live or live to eat? In either case go to Merchants Dining Hall, 11 and P. Meals at all hours; from 10c up.

D. T. Smith, jeweler 1140 O street, gives a liberal discount to all students trading with him. Watch repairs a specialty.

Whether Maceo is dead or alive cuts no figure at Leighton's, 1123 O street. They sell fine stationery, books, toilet goods, etc. The best goods for the least money is their motto.

The senior class of the College of Law has decided to publish an annual. The following were elected as members of the board of editors: Ward Hildreth, E. F. Warner, Beach Coleman, W. G. Greene, L. C. Killen, M. F. Manville and Mr. Carr. D. J. Flaherty was elected business manager.

Kans. & Neb. Fuel Co. 1008 O Street.

The P. B. D. C. has arranged a joint debate with the Evert literary society of Wesleyan University. The question to be discussed is as to whether denominational schools are superior to state institutions. The debate will probably not take place before the first of March.

The papers read by A. S. Harding on "Sources of American History," and by A. H. Waterhouse of Grand Island, on "Source Study Methods of Teaching History from the Standpoint of a Principal," which were read before the annual session of the association of the Nebraska Teachers of History, are to be published in the North Western Journal of Education.

The inaugural exercises of the Palladian society last Friday evening were impressive. The farewell address of Miss Bullock abounded in happy hits. While she had many things during her administration to be thankful for, there was one thing she regretted. Despite her efforts to the contrary she said, "Solid couples are continuing to increase, both in number and enthusiasm." Mr. Piper in his inaugural address demonstrated his literary as well as his executive ability. It was also evident that he appreciated the honor the Palls had conferred on him in making him their president. Mr. Matson's story of his trip to Canton was interesting and Mrs. McMichael's medley unique. Messrs Jones and Jorgenson closed the program with a debate.