

than twice this number. But, candidly, the HESPERIAN is compelled to admit that it has not space for a three column prospective of foot-ball or for "any old thing."

The report of the college settlement committee shows that work to be in a most prosperous condition. It further shows that in that work there is room for every student, so inclined, to make himself useful. No student can employ his time to better advantage, than in this work. The plan for college settlement work in our university is no longer an experiment. It is a success. There is but one thing needed—more earnest workers.

Joseph Lowns, '97, has resumed his studies.

There will be a class in beginner's German next semester.

There will be a social at the college settlement house Tuesday evening.

Miss Irvine, of Grand Island visited Miss Chappell last week.

Miss Emily McNeal, of North Platte, returned to her studies Monday.

Each company of the battalion is to have its picture in the Junior annual.

The Pershing Rifles are doing some extra drill in preparing for charter day.

Practice for field day and the indoor contest will begin next week.

The examinations for this semester will begin Monday, January 25.

Mr. E. M. Ravencraft is the new assistant at the weather bureau station.

Mr. J. W. Searson was confined to his room by illness a couple of days last week.

J. A. Saville, of Omaha, has returned to the Uni. and has resumed work on his thesis.

A. W. Martin, '96, Law, was circulating among university friends the fore part of the week. A. W. is temporarily located at Dorchester.

Prof. Sherman will talk to the Y. M. C. A. in the music room of the conservatory, Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Professor and Mrs. Hodgeman gave an "At Home" to the college settlement workers Saturday evening.

Last week C. W. Taylor, by mistake, entered Pall. hall when the new members were rehearsing their program. He escaped with but slight injuries.

In the Pall. picture for the Junior Annual, J. E. Pearson has a position among five Pall beauties. It is rumored that he has ordered fifty copies of the Annual.

Mr. J. F. Boomer, '98, has left school to teach at Liberty, Neb. Mr. Boomer was business manager of the HESPERIAN and one of the most energetic young men in the university. Success to you, Joe.

Latin-English and English-Latin dictionaries, text books and blank books, less than you can buy them any where, at the sale of the Leming stock.

Students are almost unanimous in considering the result of the final preliminary debate most satisfactory. The HESPERIAN believes that the university could not hope for better representatives than Baker, Green and Dennison.

Vigorous work on the Junior Annual continues. No loyal student will fail to subscribe for the sombrero.

The other day Sam Pinkerton was telling of his experience as a country school teacher. "I didn't then," said Sam, "spend any money on the girls." But three co-eds who overheard this could remain silent no longer and Sam's story was brought to a pre-mature conclusion.