

Delian Feed.

In connection with their usual meeting last Friday evening the Delian Society enjoyed a social treat. After a short program of four numbers at Delian Hall the members and friends of the society betook themselves to the home of the Misses Craig, where extensive preparations had been made for their entertainment. After a social half hour in which strangers became acquainted, the hostess distributed papers with a few letters on each. Two prizes were offered: one for the best and one for the poorest sentence which could be made using the letters given for the first letter of each word. Witty and absurd sentences were constructed which added to the merriment of the occasion. The judges gave the first prize, a memento of the occasion inscribed with the Delian yell, to Mr. Garrett. The booby prize was won by Mr. Emerson. It was a small wire egg beater and labeled "a thing to beat with."

Refreshments were served by the Misses Craig assisted by Misses Wiggins, Thorne and Langer; after which several appropriate toasts were responded to with Mr. Reedy as toast master. At a questionable hour the party broke up with feelings of gratitude to those who had planned for them so delightful an evening's entertainment.

The Joint Debate.

A large audience assembled in Union Hall last Saturday evening to listen to the debate between U. B. D. C. and four representatives of Phi Kappa Delta from Doane College.

The program was opened by a well rendered piano solo by Miss Joyce.

L. F. Reed, J. H. Harms, C. F. Fisher and L. H. Lee of Doane argued for the written constitution and were opposed by H. A. Meier, Chas. Kuhlman, J. A. Maguire and R. S. Baker of the U. B. D. C.

The argument was logical throughout. Our boys seemed to have the advantage which long practice in debating secures.

At the close of the debate Mr. Kenagy sang one of his popular songs. We hope that the next debate will be as pleasant and profitable.

College of Law Notes.

An awful stillness prevades the Maxwell club headquarters.

J. H. Kemp is again in school after an absence of several weeks.

J. D. Dennison was late in returning after his holiday vacation. Was he snow-bound or was he spell-bound.

On Thursday Dr Green gave the first of a series of ten lectures on medical jurisprudence.

Last Friday, Chancellor MacLean notified the law school that he thought it would be advisable for the Maxwell club to suspend its sessions for the remainder of the present semester. For the past month or more each meeting which the club has held has resulted in parliamentary "scraps" between the Killen and Abbot factions. It is to be hoped that "all will be well" after this short spell of inactivity.

Everything in the Leming retail stock must be closed out by March 1st. Have still a large line of books that must be closed out. "The Luxury of Poetry" McReynolds, 5c. "Cassells National Library" 5c. "First Lessons in Physiology" (Hutchinsons), 10c. "Elements of Geometry" (Oulneys), 25c. "Manual of Gesture" (Bacon), 25c. "Handy Literal Translation," 25c. "Cassells Dictionary," $1.00. Book straps, 5c and 10c. Pens, inks, pencils, tablets, paper, etc. Two packages of 10c envelopes for 5c. 500 dozen copy and drawing books at 15c and 25c per dozen. Everything must be sold.

J. E. HEUTZ,

Sale of the Leming stock.