Comfort to California.

Every Thursday evening, a tourist sleeping car for Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles leaves Omaha and Lincoln via the Burlington Route.

It is carpeted; upholstered in rattan; has spring seats and backs and is provided with curtains, bedding, towels, soap, etc. An experienced excursion conductor and a uniformed Pullman porter accompany it through to the Pacific coast.

While neither as expensively finished nor as fine to look at as a palace sleeper, it is just as good to ride in. Second-class tickets are honored and the price of a berth, wide enough and big enough for two, is only $5.

For a folder giving full particulars, call at the B. & M. depot or city office, corner of 10th & O streets.

Captain Guilfoyle was unable to attend to his duties Monday.

J. A. Barrett lectured before the Omaha Unity Club Monday evening.

The senior caps and gowns will be donned the first of next semester.

A. R. Congdon is spending the week at his home in Weeping Water.

Among the seniors who will not be in school next semester, are Miss Atkinson, Miss Case and G. H. Rose.

The electrical engineers meet this Saturday evening. All freshmen and sophomores in that course are requested to come out and help push the exhibit along.

The Sophomores met last Friday and elected the following officers: President, Mr. Haw xby; vice-president, Miss Randall; secretary, Miss McFarland; Treasurer, S. B. Sloan; Sargent-at-arms, the retiring president P. A. Morse. A. R. Garinger was elected as representative of the class in the new athletic movement. By an almost unanimous vote the class decided to get out an annual next year.
