

becomes significant when we remember that during some years, Gloucester has lost more men by sea than she lost on the battle field in the same length of time, between Sixty-One and Sixty-Five, though she sent several thousand men to war. In one great storm, some eighty odd men were lost from her fishing fleet.

How Kipling seizes upon and appropriates these essential characteristics, it is not easy to say. Certain it seems, that along with wonderful, indefatigable energy of observation, a certain, unerring instinct guides him. He has a strange power that supplies, as some minds before him have supplied, evolutions of years from a single print in the sand at his feet. Greater still, in his province of literature, while he does not seem to waste much sympathy on his characters, he so marks out the vital points that we must read a history between the lines. A.

R. S. Hunt is visiting in Fremont this week.

Merchant's Barber Shop. Good work guaranteed. Brace Block.

Mr. Larson, a former student, has returned to the university.

If you want good coal and want it cheap, call up telephone 335.

E. A. Moore will lead the Y. M. C. A. devotional meeting Sunday afternoon.

The Kansas & Nebraska Fuel Co. guarantees its coal to be the best for the money expended.

Prof. Caldwell wishes us to announce that American History II is open to any university student.

The Misses Dora Auman and Maud Atkinson will entertain a number of their friends this evening.

If you want to see the biggest bargains in books ever made in Nebraska, go to the Lemings sale and look at their 10, 15 and 25 cent tables.

Kans. & Neb. Fuel Co. 1008 O Street.

Call and see us in our new shop at 1144 O street.

R. & C.

Mr. McMichael led the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday afternoon. At the close of the meeting the membership of the association was increased by three.

1330 O street. Jas. Kolbach custom shoe shop.

The number of copies of the Junior Annual to be published will depend entirely on the number of subscriptions. No extra copies will be printed. If you want a copy you must subscribe at once.

Company A held its annual reception at the Phi Delta Theta rooms last Friday evening. Drill matters were discussed. Considerable interest in competitive drill was manifested. It is putting it mildly to say the boys enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The executive committee of the Nebraska State Oratorical Association met at the university last Saturday. The committee is composed of W H Hutze of Doane, C W Taylor of the university and E W Ellis of Doane. Judges on manuscript and delivery were selected. The state contest will be held at Lincoln March 26.

At a called meeting of the university oratorical association last Saturday the following pro tem officers were elected: president, R. H. Graham; vice-president, L. V. Patch; secretary-treasurer, C. W. Taylor. J. P. Cameron, J. E. Pearson, O. H. Allen, G. E. Kindler and R. C. Roper were elected delegates to the state association. C. W. Taylor, J. P. Cameron and O. W. Meier were constituted a committee to revise the constitution of the local association.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.