The February Arena is a very attractive issue. In it can be found notable papers by Forbes Winslow on "Madness as Portrayed by Shakespere," "The Land of the Noon-day Sun," by Walter Clark. Justice Clark has visited Mexico and this issue contains the opening paper of a series which we feel sure will be full of interest. There are also notable articles by Ridpath on finance, by Sanborn on Bryant, and by Rev. Christopher Hussey on Whittier. The entire magazine is full of matters of interest and none should overlook it. The illustrations are particularly good.
