

LOCALS.

Go to Rector's for your hot soda.

Mr. A. N. Moody, the popular Senior, is at present studying medicine in a Denver medical college.

Patronize Westerfield. He is up to date on hair cutting.

Removal—Osborn's Old Book Store to 131 North 12th street.

"Bud" Gillespie has quit school for the rest of the year and gone to work in Republican city.

See Dr. Hodgman for first-class dental work at very low prices.

All second semester books can now be had at the Co-Operative Book Store.

Ned Abbott went over to Fremont Saturday, February 8th, in the interest of the Nebraska Literary Magazine.

Frank Du Teil, 1020 O street, sells the finest cigars in the city. Call and see him. Telephone 250.

E. R. Guthrie, 1540 O street, the reliable bicycle man, can mend your wheel in short order and the right way. If you want a Rambler call on him—they're the best. The pros. all ride 'em.

A. G. Faurot, '91, in a letter to Professor Fossler, said he was enjoying himself very much in Berlin. He expects soon to take up his studies in the University of Wuttenburg. Mr. Faurot is specializing in Germanic philology.

Late periodicals can always be found at Frank Du Teil's stand, 1020 O street. Also the finest cigars, smoking and chewing tobacco. Telephone 250.

All students who desire to drink only the latest drinks will go to Rector's, corner 12th and N streets.

The chapel was crowded every day last week. The improvement in attendance was so marked the chancellor could not help noticing it.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

Notice the ad. on upper half of page next to front reading matter.

On the black-board in the room devoted to American history appears the following legend: "Principles Fought for in the American Revolution. 1. Silver medal and ten dollars. 2. Gold medal worth two hundred dollars."

Dr. O. F. Lambertson, dentist. Special rates to students. 1207 O street.

E. Fleming, 1224 O street, practical watchmaker, jeweler and engraver. All repair work promptly attended to. Glasses fitted, correcting the most difficult sight.

There was considerable difficulty in selecting delivery judges for the local oratorical contest. Chancellor MacLean, Judge Hall, and John L. Webster of Omaha, were first chosen, with Ross Hammond, of Fremont, Mr. Dennis and Talbot as alternates. Mr. Hammond and Mr. Talbot were the only ones of the six who could except and Hon. T. C. Munger of this city consented to act as the third judge.

Dental parlors of Dr. Hodgman over Harley's. Reduced price to students.

Any student who expects to make up work at the Lincoln Normal University can save money by seeing the managers of this paper.

Professors Adams and Burnett looked in for a moment at the Ninth and Z mission, Sunday afternoon. There was no more standing room inside, so they went to take a look at the home engaged for the college settlement work. They express themselves as very much pleased with the enthusiasm manifested in the Sunday-school, and with the arrangements in progress for the reading room.

T. A. Williams, who has been at work in the botanical laboratory for some time, will leave this week to take up his work again as professor of botany in the state agriculture school of South Dakota.