

Students! Do you know that you ought to have your pictures taken? The Elite Studio is still ready to give you the best work at the lowest prices. 226 South 11th street.

Miss Maud Triplett is now teaching in the public school of Clinton, Missouri. Miss Triplett is also rapidly coming to be recognized as a leader in musical circles in Clinton.

Saturday evening, February 8, Miss Katharine Melick entertained the English club at the residence of her uncle on east P street. Miss Melick's reputation as a charming hostess was more than sustained, every one enjoyed themselves. The program was unusually good.

The joint debate between Doane college and the Union boys debating club, will be held in the chapel February 22. The question for discussion is, "Resolved, that the contract entered into by the present administration in last February, with the so-called bond syndicate was justifiable. Messrs. Maguire, Boomer, Searson and Lien will defend the negative.

There was quite a spirited debate in the U. B. D. C. last Saturday night in regard to the constitutionality of a ticket elected at the previous meeting. Several very good speeches were made for and against the ticket. Parliamentary rules were frequently called up to settle disputed questions. After a strong discussion of the matter the ticket was declared illegal. They then proceeded to the election of new officers who were as follows: President, P. J. Maguire; vice president, Mr. Strain; secretary, L. E. Mumford; attorneys, Messrs. H. E. Wilson and Harding; sargeant-at-arms the retiring president, J. W. Searson.

LAW SCHOOL LOCALS.

L. L. Funke returned Saturday to complete his course.

A. W. Martin has a case set for next Saturday before Justice Spencer.

Kinsman & McCleod, the law-book firm of Omaha, has offered Pomeroy's Equity

Jurisprudence as a prize for the best thesis. It consists of three volumes and is valued at $18.

It is rumored that "Dad" Coleman has taken up his residence at University Place.

Some of the boys received a practical illustration of woman's rights at the Maxwell club last Saturday night.

The class in Riparian Rights holds its first meeting next Friday. This study was added to the course this year as an elective.

At the January examination before the supreme court of Iowa there were forty-one applications for admission to the bar.

The examination consisted of one hundred written questions with four hours oral quiz. J. M. Admundson ranked first and Wm. Mentzer second. They are both graduates of this department and Mr. Edmundson's grade was the highest ever received before the court of Iowa.

The eight annual contest of the University oratorical association was held in the chapel last Saturday evening. The lower part of the chapel was fairly well filled when President Barr called the association to order. Messrs. Alexander, Pinkerton, Sumners, Edgerton, Quaintance und Abbott were the orators. The judges gave Mr. Pinkerton, first place and Mr. Quaintance second. Mr. Pinkerton will represent the university in the state contest which will be held at Doane, the 20th of March, and Mr. Quaintance will be chairman of the delegation to the state convention held at Doane the same day.

The Junior class may well pride themselves on arranging and carrying out the most successful ball in University history. The Junior promenade held last Wednesday night in the Hotel Lincoln was an ideal social affair. The program composed twenty-two numbers—of which the jocular two-step was most conspicuous. The grand march was led by President Morrill, of the board of regents and Mrs. MacLean. Delicious ices were served throughout the evening. Mrs. F. G. Hall, as manager, proved herself most capable.