

Professor Swezey will lecture at Exeter next Friday evening.

Work on the tennis courts on the west side of the campus will soon be begun. Four new courts will be put in. The association will spend about a hundred dollars in fixing up the grounds.

The following promotions were made in the batallion last week: To be seargents cadet privates, S. W. Pinkerton and G. N. Shreve; to be corporals, cadet privates, C. W. Weeks, L. J. Belknap, A. A. Bischoff, C. B. Norton and W. S. Heitzman.

Dr. O. F. Lambertson, dentist. Special rates to students. 1207 O street.

E. Fleming, 1224 O street, practical watchmaker, jeweler and engraver. All repair work promptly attended to. Glasses fitted, correcting the most difficult sight.

At a class meeting held Friday, Feb. 28, Mr. Turner was elected president of the freshman class to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Pearson's resignation.

At the beginning of this semester Miss Tremain referred her English history class to "Hall's Chronicle of English History." Shortly after one of the members of the class appeared at the librarian's desk and asked if she would please find "Hall's Chronic History" for him.

Subscribers who have not yet paid their subscription to THE HESPERIAN are requested to do so.

Students! Do you know that you ought to have your pictures taken? The Elite Studio is still ready to give you the best work at the lowest prices. 226 South 11th street.

Dental parlors of Dr. Hodgman over Harley's. Reduced price to students.

Any student who expects to make up work at the Lincoln Normal University can save money by seeing the managers of this paper.

All students who desire to drink only the latest drinks will go to Rector's, corner 12th and N streets.

LAW SCHOOL LOCALS.

A. W. Martin tried a case at Havelock last week and obtained an interlocutory decision.

"Dean" Gardner contemplates changing his profession from law to painting.

The sophomore class met last Friday for the purpose of electing a board of editors for the Junior Annual. After the reading of the minutes, they proceeded at once to the election of the board, which resulted in the selection of the following members: Editors-in-chief, Messrs. McKay and Barron; business managers, Messrs. Pierson and Russel; associate editors, Messrs. Axling, Lunn, True, Morrison, Burget, Wiggernhorn, Belnap, and Misses Wilkinson, Tuttle and Gere; artists, Messrs. Barber, Culver and Misses Wycoff and Lytle. The ticket elected is a strong one and seems to give entire satisfaction to the class.

Justice practice commences in about two weeks. Meanwhile some of the boys have been holding mook courts on their own responsibility. Last Friday a case was tried before Justice V. E. Wilson. Birch and Matthers appeared for the plaintiff, and Warner and Castor for defendant. Needless to say judgment was rendered for defendant.

The Law school organized a republican club last Thursday evening. W. V. Hoagland called the meeting to order and J. L. Stephens was elected temporary president. After the adoption of a constitution permanent officers were elected as follows: President, D. L. Killen; first vice-president, A. J. Abbott; second vice-president, L. C. Day; secretary, G. M. Castor; treasurer, C. L. Wilson. As a delegate to the convention in Chicago during the month of April, A. J. Weaver.