

Miss Maraget O'Connell has returned to her classes after a week's illness.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Kittie Shackelton is confined to her rooms by sickness.

Dr. Cord spoke at Geneva last week before the farmers institute.

Otto Meier is preparing a paper for the journalism class on the government of the University.

Students! Do you know that you ought to have your pictures taken? The Elite Studio is still ready to give you the best work at the lowest prices. 226 South 11th street.

Students! You should know that Ode Rector's soda fountain has started full-blast. Which will you have, hot or cold.

C. A. Fisher has been appointed assistant in the Geological department.

Overheard in Fling's European history class. Student commenting on a quotation from Thucydides: "This shows the heartlessness of the Democracy in putting a man to death during his absence."

All students expecting to attend the contest at Doane are requested to meet Thursday evening in the chapel to practice songs and yells.

The P. G. D. C. met on Friday evening with full attendance. The debators were Miss Bullock and Miss Smails. They gave a very interesting discussion of Phi Batta Kappa. Mr. Wilson has left the city so the Parliamentary drill will be discontinued for the present.

E. R. Guthrie, 1540 O street, the reliable bicycle man, can mend your wheel in short order and the right way. If you want a Rambler call on him—they're the best. The pros. all ride 'em.

Any student who expects to make up work at the Lincoln Normal University can save money by seeing the managers of this paper.

The twelfth annual session of the Southwestern Nebraska Educational Association will be held in the chapel Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Some very prominent educators will speak.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave an informal dance last Friday evening at their chapter house, 435 north 25th street.

Miss Dempster gave a party Saturday night in honor of Miss Ashbrook who is visiting her. The Misses Dempster and Ashbrook were teachers at Geneva last year.

N. S. Harwood, president of the First National bank will address the Political Economy club Wednesday evening on the subject "Clearing Houses and Bank Clearings."

Chancellor McLean spoke at Friend last week. His subject was "Education in Nebraska and its Advantages."

Thad. Williams of Fairbury visited his son W. L., a student of the law school, last week.

Chancellor McLean will give an address at the commencement exercises of the Cotner University Medical College which will occur at the Funke March 18.

The English club gave a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock, corner 16 and S streets, to Prof. Herbert Bates. A large bottle of red ink and a pen, draped in black were presented to the Professor indicating the regret of his departure.

The many friends of Miss Lula Burrows will be sorry to learn that she has left the University for the remainder of the year. She is to teach in a school near Filley, her former home in Gage county. Miss Burrows will be greatly missed in the University as she has been active in student enterprises of all kinds. She was one of the literary editors of the HESPERIAN, and was also president Y. W. C. A. We are sorry to see Miss Burrows go, and will be glad to welcome her back next fall.