

LOCAL.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's. The clay modeling class has begun its work.

The Y. M. C. A. is organizing a double quartette.

Mr. F. E. Strain is confined to his bed by a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Miss Woods, who was called home by the illness of her sister, has returned.

Dental parlors of Dr. Hodgman over Harley's. Reduced price to students.

Miss Shackleton has recovered from a severe illness and is again in her class.

The Maxwell club has arranged with the P. B. D. C. for a joint debate in the near future.

Miss Melick has been employed to teach a part of the classes heretofore instructed by Prof. Bates.

W. L. Williams went to Fairbury Monday to help vote down the high license system in that town.

Mr. J. H. Hatfield, class '94 of the college of law, has been doing some valuable work during the past week toward bringing about municipal reform.

Messrs. C. L. Spencer and S. A. White were initiated into the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity last week. The boys report that the goat was a hard one to ride.

Students! Do you know that you ought to have your pictures taken? The Elite Studio is still ready to give you the best work at the lowest prices. 226 South 11th street.

The Palladian boys debating club held their election Saturday evening. Mr. Perry was elected president, Mr. Turner vice-president, Mr. Sloan secretary and treasurer, Mr. Hanson sargeant at arms.

Mr. Moody, '95, passed through here on his way home from the Denver Medical College, which he has been attending the past year. A considerable number of his friends from the University were at the train and enjoyed a short talk with him.

The P. B. D. C. and U. B. D. C. have arranged for a joint debate April 11th. Messrs. Taylor, Smoyer and Perry of the Palladian club will maintain that "English shall grant House Rule to Ireland," while the Union club, represented by Messrs. L. C. Abbott, Myer and Strain will try to prove the contrary.

Go to Rector's for your soda.

Patronize Westerfield. He is up to date on hair cutting.

Miss Grace Allen of Wabash called at the University last week.

Removal—Osborn's Old Book Store to 131 North 12th street.

See Dr. Hodgman for first-class dental work at very low prices.

Mrs. Dempster, of Beatrice, spent Sunday with her daughter Mabel.

Dr. O. F. Lambertson, dentist. Special rates to students. 1207 O street.

Professor Barber treated his class to an examination in Plantus last Wednesday.

Bicycle saits of all kinds (except ladies) can be had of Paine Warfel & Bumstead.

Subscribers who have not yet paid their subscription to THE HESPERIAN are requested to do so.

Students! You should know that Ode Rector's soda fountain has started full-blast. Which will you have, hot or cold.

Chancellor MacLean delivered the announcement oration before the graduating class of the Omaha Medical College at the Boyd opera house last Tuesday.

J. W. Searson was appointed clerk of election Tuesday, and he now says he is ready for another trip to Doane as his pocket book is replenished.

Messrs. White and Sedgwick departed Monday for Cleveland to represent the local chapter at the national convention of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Students! Do you know that you ought to have your pictures taken? The Elite Studio is still ready to give you the best work at the lowest prices. 226 South 11th street.

The Commandant marched the batallion out into the northern part of the city last Monday evening and drilled them on the bottoms among weeds, tin cans and dead fowls.

English 4 can no longer boast of its mammoth proportions. The big class—like Caesar's gaul—is divided into three parts, each of which meet every third week at the regular hour.

E. R. Guthrie, 1540 O street, the reliable bicycle man, can mend your wheel in short order and the right way. If you want a Rambler call on him—they're the best. The profs. all ride 'em.