

Locals.

Dr. Lees took a western trip on his wheel.

Miss Tuttle visited her sister in Tarkio, Mo.

Dr. Ward has been in Lincoln this summer.

Prof. Swezey has been in Chicago studying.

Miss Conklin has spent most of the summer in Lincoln.

Prof. Johnson will take up the work left by Prof. Wilson.

Vernon Craig is teaching school at Leigh, Nebr. this year.

Professors Barbour and Hampson have spent the summer in Ohio.

Palladian and Union halls look much better as a result of a thorough cleaning.

Miss Jones lately attended a meeting of the American Library Association at Cleveland, Ohio.

Prof. Hodgeman has been in Rochester N. Y. Profs. Taylor and Burnett saw the sights in Colorado.

Dr. White has spent his vacation in Maryland. Miss Barr is home from the summer school at Harvard.

Prof. Bruner spent a number of weeks on a government expedition in Wyoming and several of the neighboring states.

Professor Barber has been studying in Chicago. He expects to introduce more fully the new method of teaching Latin syntax.

Each of the three literary societies, on Friday evening, gave a reception to the new students, of which there was a large number present.

Prof. Bessey has returned from New York, where he attended and addressed the American Association for the advancement of Science.

Chancellor MacLean has been in Europe this summer. He reports a pleasant and profitable vacation.

Professors Sherman and Bessey have been connected with a summer school at Colorado Springs.

Miss Rena Alderman and Miss Olive Thayer are again in school after a year or two of vacation.

C. M. Kincaid is back in school again after teaching for two years near his home at Clay Center.

Dr. Brace has returned from Colorado, having spent the greater part of the summer there on his wheel.

Prof. Carl Tucker is giving instruction in vocal music in some of the larger towns of South Western Iowa.

"Cicero" Johnson '94, well and favorable known to the older members of the university, passed through the city Monday enroute to Columbia. He stopped a few hours to shake hands with his old chums at the U. of N.

The Palladian Slate-bearer will be slightly handicapped this year. Three weddings have occurred in the society's numbers this summer. The fortunate ones are Miss Davison, Mr. Thatcher and Mr. Hills.

Mr. Geo. H. Kern, late with Woolson Bros., of Chicago, is with Browning, King & Co. and is showing as fine a line of neck wear as can be found in the city. Everything is as new and early as can be found in Chicago or New York.

The Union Boys Debating club held their first meeting last Saturday. The club starts out this year with bright prospects. Election of officers resulted in the choice of the following: A. S. Harding, pres.; J. F. Boomer, vice pres.; — Hawksby, sec.; J. A. Maguire and G. F. Warren, attorneys; Charles Kuhlman sergeant-at-arms.