

Registration was a snap.

D. N. Lehmer is a Popocrat.

H. E. Newbranch will study law.

L. J. Abbott teaches at Crawford.

Miss Kathrine Melick has returned.

N. C. Abbott is at the Blind Institute.

J. H. McGuffy teaches at Nebraska City.

This is not good weather for bench work.

Mr. Turrell will have a French division.

Miss Josephine Tremain did not go to Yale.

Mrs. Grace Prey-Tynes has gone to Iowa.

Norman Shreve has decided to graduate this year.

Miss Rena Chappell will remain at Golden, Colo.

Mr. Cutter teaches in the High School at Humboldt.

Miss Amy Bruner is back to take graduate work.

A. Will Troyer is still at the Wisconsin University.

Mrs. Irene Davidson-MacMichall has registered for work.

J. P. Cameron is back, but shorn of his raven curls, alas!

Elva Dempster has returned to her school at Dundee, Ill.

Walter Van Fleet Hoagland is practicing law at South Platte.

H. S. Evans and W. G. Kinton arrived bright and smiling one morning.

Miss Nellie Slean made a record bicycling this summer.

Geo. Town has secured a position in the High Schools at Junction City.

Miss Bertha Quaintance wrote that history paper. Hers is the only one heard of so far.

Will Heitzman spent the summer stumping for Bryan.

The usual question—"Did you have a pleasant summer?"

Free-hand drawing is offered this year for the last time in the Uni.

The Palladians have about sixty of their old members back again.

Harvey Heald goes to the Chicago school of medicine this year.

Mrs. Kittie Shackleton-Holmes is back at the University ready for work.

Mrs. Tinsley, sister of Miss Shank, is making a short visit at the University.

The Palladians are busy preparing for the celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary.

Mr. Kirk of '95 and W. T. Elmore of '96 are doing post graduate work here this year.

Frank Edgerton is one of the corps of instructors in the schools of Missouri Valley, Iowa.

H. C. Peterson will take the position in English Literature, formerly held by Mr. Ansley.

Miss Myrtle Wheeler will teach Latin and History in the Dundee, (Ill.) schools this coming year.

Ex-Chancellor E. B. Fairfield will give an address in the Lansing as one feature of the Palladian celebration.

Applied Mechanics, formerly a two-hour study under Prof. Owens, is this year a three-hour study by Mr. Chatburn

Robert Hiltner of the chemical department will fill a position at the state farm this year. His brother Martin will take his place as assistant in chemistry.

R. S. Baker is with us again, hearty and hale after a summer spent on a ranch in Frontier Co. It is rumored that R. S. is, politically, on the fence and may vote for Bryan and free silver.