

Local.

1200 T street for good board.

Miss Minnie Reetz '96 has returned to take up Post work.

The Palladians skipped classes recklessly-this week.

10 cents for a single meal at Pinkerton's boarding club, 1200 T street.

Miss Clara Cowgil's uncle, Mr. Cowgil, of Villisca, Iowa, called on her last week.

Engaged—Between the hours of 12 and 1, the window on the first door, under west stair-way.

Edgar Banghart has been confined to his bed for the past two weeks. We hope to see him among us again soon.

Miss Mary Bryan, sister of W. J. Bryan, is in town. She may attend the Palladian Celebration. She is a Palladian.

The Delians decided to adjourn Friday evening Oct. 16th, and attend the Palladian Program to be held in the chapel.

Mr T. J. Kemp expects his brother J. H. Kemp from Kimball, Va., soon to attend the Law school. This speaks well for the reputation of the Uni. Law school.

"Why I came alone to-night," seemed to be a favorite subject for impromptu speeches Friday evening by the Delian boys. The weather of course received the blame.

Forty have registered for the preliminary debates. This assures a close contest for the first three places. Last year only sixteen entered the local debates yet we came off victorious in the fray with Kansas.

The day of prayer for women, appointed by the International Com. of the Y. W. C. A. for Oct. 8, was observed by the Uni. Y. W. C. A. Miss Laura Wild, Sec. of the City Association, led the noon day Prayer-meeting.

Better than ever! What? Boarding at 1200 T street, $2 per week.

Westerfield has done the students barbering for seventeen years.

The Graduate Seminar in American History decided after a scientific investigation of the sources that Silver was actually dropped from coinage in 1873.

Browning, King & Co. have donated ten dollars for the foot-ball team. This is the first contribution that has come in from outside sources unsolicited. By the way, they advertise in the HESPERIAN. See their ad.

R. S. Baker, orator and statesman, has distinguished himself lately on several occasions discussing political questions before the ward clubs of the city. A move is already inaugurated to secure the Lansing for Mr. Baker's next effort.

The Union Boys Debating Club at its next meeting will discuss the question, Resolved: That a College Professor has no right to participate in politics. The Professors will probably be glad to learn that they are still to be allowed the privilege of voting.

If you want the best barber shop in the city, go to Westerfield's, 117 N 13th, just south of the Lansing.

Prof. F. M. Fling has just accepted an invitation to deliver his scholarly address on Man and His Opportunities, before the semi-annual meeting of Saunders Co. teachers, held at Ashland, Oct. 23. The following day Prof. Lucky will address the meeting in the interest of Child Study and Prof. Fling will speak on Methods of Historical Study.

Next Saturday night the P. B. D. C. will debate the question, Resolved: That free and unlimited coinage of silver would be of advantage to the people of the United States.

Aff.	{ Smoyer	Neg.	{ Pinkerton
	{ Kindler		{ Perry

The old students go to Westerfield's. You should do the same, if you want the best hair cut in the city.