

Local.

Did you hear Pinkerton cheering those Doane men Saturday?

The Juniors and Seniors meet on the grid-iron Friday afternoon, the 30th of this month.

A very interesting, mounted specimen of red snow plant was sent to the Uni. from Kansas City.

Juniors! The editors of the Junior Annual want you to write stories and send in jokes for the Annual.

When our team needed a gain of just three yards they gave Turner the ball and pushed him over the Cretons.

There is a class of four students in Sanskrit, now in the Uni. This class is larger than the one in Chicago Uni.

Miss Eva Leonard, Miss Lulu Burrows, Miss Ella McCrosky and Miss Elizabeth Thomson were among the visiting Palladians last week.

Prof. Edgrin expects to entertain the Graduate Club soon. A definite announcement, as to time and program, will be given later.

The day of prayer for the Student Volunteer movement is Oct. 25th. The Volunteer Band will meet at 9 a. m. in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building.

The Mission Study class meets every Saturday at 11 a. m. in the Y. M. C. A. room. Judson's life, to the time of his sailing for foreign lands, will be reviewed next Saturday.

The Christian Association will hold a joint missionary meeting in the chapel, Sabbath Oct. 25, at 4 p. m. Some reports of the missionary part of the Lake Geneva conference will be given.

The Junior class met in room five Monday, to discuss affairs pertaining to their Annual. They voted that the junior Laws be invited to put a member of their class on the Annual board.

The Law School is well represented in the preliminary debates, both in quantity and quality.

Five enterprising Grand Island teachers are carrying on the Roman History work in the European History department in absentia.

Miss Mezzie Redford, formerly a university student, is visiting with her cousin Miss Helena Redford and renewing acquaintance with her many friends here.

Mr. R. C. Bentley, '94, is filling with high honor, the principalship of the Shelton schools. He reports work progressing finely and is well satisfied with his new position.

Miss Bertha Pinkerton, '96, a member of Union Society, was shaking hands with university friends last Saturday. Miss Pinkerton is assistant principal in the Blair High school.

Mr. W. H. Pillsbury, '96, is occupying creditably the principalship of the High School at Falls City. He has already introduced many helpful changes along the line of systematizing the work.

Prof. J. H. McGuffey, of the Nebraska City High School, reports progressive work, and if he continues as active there in college politics as he was here, we bespeak a career of remarkable success.

All Juniors are requested to go to Townsend's at once and have their pictures taken for the Junior Annual. It costs you nothing, Juniors, to sit for this picture and if you want any copies they can be had at gratefully reduced rates.

Miss Wainwright, who left her home in Blair, Neb., nine years ago, to go to Japan, has returned for a short visit to her native land. The mission study class was fortunate in having her with them at the Uni. Saturday. She told of her work in Japan and also of the manners and customs of the Japanese.