The hares succeeded in eluding the hounds in last Saturday's chase. The bipeds were on the go over three hours.

The November Review of Reviews contains a letter from Prof. Langworthy Taylor on the political situation in Nebraska and Colorado.

The Y. M. C. A. apple social was well patronized. Apples proved to be quite a drawing card. Out of a barrel not one remained to tell the tale.

W. C. Hills was taken to the hospital, Friday where an operation was performed. He is doing well but will be out of school for several weeks.

Miss Mary Horne, class of '96, left Monday p. m. for Chicago, where she goes to fill a position in the cataloging department of the John Crerar Library.

Prof. Bates has left the Cincinnati Enquirer and is now in New York. His book of poems, "Songs of Exile," is out, though no copies have reached Lincoln.

"O. H. Allen was initiated into Alpha Theta Chi last night" says the Reprint. We take pleasure in removing this blot from Brother Allen's fair name. It was O. H. Martin.

The Juniors met Tuesday afternoon. Messrs Lunn and Axling resigned from the annual board. These gentlemen had been elected from the Union and Delian societies and immediately afterwards resigned from these organizations. The societies felt that they were entitled to representation on the board and secured it by a determined effort. Messrs Evans and Reedy were elected to the vacancies.

Now look here. You know that our boys need all the encouragement they can get at the Omaha game. We still have a chance of winning the pennant. Although it is rather slight, you should do your best to help us come in on that chance. Go to Omaha. Every student who can possibly get away should help out the boys to this extent. Make up your mind to go and then prepare to entuse.

The Y. W. C. A. reception last Saturday night was a grand success. The young ladies were entertained in the beautiful home of Mrs. F. M. Hall. The state officers of the society were present and were introduced to the members of the company. Five large rooms were filled with those enjoying the entertainment. Excellant music was provided for the occasion. Miss Nellie Griggs sang two beautiful soprano selections and there was a charming duet by the Misses Ouman and Atkinson.
