In the senate there will be thirteen farmers, six lawyers, four physicians, three merchants and two editors. The house will contain seventy-four farmers, eleven merchants, five lawyers and two editors.

We're Still Playing.

Our sister Wesleyan, not being thoroughly satisfied with her first drubbing had a short interview with Captain Thorpe and his boys again last Monday afternoon at M street park. Wesleyan had been under the impression that she might surprise us, and she did, but to our own satisfaction. The small number of "rooters" that accompanied them to the field showed plainly their lack of confidence. They could hardly have been expected to play heavy ball however with their coach and three or four of their best men gone. The game was called at 3:10 p. m. and two minutes later Packard having carried the ball three times placed it easily behind the Wesleyan goal. This kind of work was kept up through the first half in particular, the Uni. making four touch downs and three goals. There was some good bucking done by our team and also fair defensive work. Wesleyan did not take the ball from us once on downs.

In the second half Wesleyan steadied down on the defensive and kept us from running up the score although our boys did not exert themselves very much. Once Wesleyan scared us. They made about 25 yards by straight bucks and some criss-cross work, but when near our goal lost on downs. They never got closer than ten yards.

They were afraid to kick being so weak on defensive while Cowgill, who captained for the state instead of Thorpe kicked even when it was not necessary.

Wesleyan has a plucky team and with
