

The third term of the school of music begins this week.

Mrs. Winnie Covell, of Elmwood, has returned to school.

Mr. Langworthy attended his brother's wedding last week at Seward.

Martin Hiltner will have charge of the assaying class this year.

Charter Day vacation will be Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 15th and 16th.

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. will give their semi-annual reception about the 13th of this month.

The new members program of the Palladian society will be given two weeks from Friday night.

Miss Nora Graves, of York, an old Palladian, has returned to Chicago to resume her studies in art.

Miss Marguerite O'Connell, a former Pall. reports progress in her school work at Sterling, Nebr.

The Y. M. C. A. glee club will give an entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. building the 19th of this month.

Prof. Swezey treated his class in general Astronomy with some views of the planets last Tuesday.

The Zoology Journal Club will hold their next meeting Feb. 9th instead of February 16, because of Charter Day vacation.

On Wednesday morning Prof. Peterson found room 27 at the Library crowded with those who wished to take up the beginning work in Shakespeare.

The cavalry men and the artillery men are now distinguished from the infantry by strips of yellow and red, respectively, across the lower part of the sleeve.

STUDENTS—We Can save you money if you buy your fuel from us. We have all kinds of COAL at reasonable prices.

Kans. and Neb. Fuel Co.,
1008 O St., Tel. 335.

By some mistake the "copy" of the Union Oratorical contest was mislaid. The HESPERIAN apologizes for the error and promises a full report next week.

A week from today devotees of St. Valentine will make their yearly offering at his shrine. No matter whether times be hard or easy St. Valentine's offering is sure to be on hand. We have made a reputation in Lincoln for handling everything new and original in Valentines and we believe you will agree with us if you examine our goods. We have Comic Valentines—not the cheap ones to be seen in almost every dealers window, but new and bright cards with good hits and comic verses, - which we sell at 5 and 10 cts each; lace Valentines for 1-2 ct. each to 10 cts. Cards at 1c. to 25c. Novelties in celluloid, etc. at 12c. to $2.00. Etchings on satin, from 50c. upwards. Our prices as usual are made at lowest possible margin. Book Dept., Herpolsheimer & Co.

College of Law Notes.

Judge Maxwell gave his first lecture on Code Pleading this week.

W. J. Lamme '96, of Clarinda, Ia., was circulating among university friends this week.

This has been a week of examinations in the law school. The Senior class has had examinations in evidence and equity pleading; the Junior class in Blackstone and contracts.

The Maxwell club will not meet Saturday evening. This is a sore disappointment to many barbs. who are anxious for a chance to vindicate that they are in the majority, and can elect their man with "a free ballot and a fair count." But after all, perhaps delay is better for the future of the club.