

Miss Lela Wheeler and W. J. Lowrie have joined the Palladians.

Best work in the city. Merchant's Barber Shop.

Miss Lillie Munroe was confined to her room a few days last week by sickness.

J. E. Shue, of Summerfield, Kan., is renewing university acquaintances this week.

The senior boys failed to make an appearance with their canes Monday morning.

Mr. Guy Barnes has returned to resume his studies after being away on account of sickness.

The regents will take action on the text book question, at their regular meeting, next Monday.

J. W. Searson will speak before the teachers of Elmwood, Saturday, on the Source Study Method of History.

Call and see our new hydraulic chairs at 1144 O street. R. & C.

Rev. C. R. Welden, of Red Cloud, Nebr., an old Palladian alumnus, was visiting the university this week.

The department of Geology will have the usual Charter Day "open house." The museum will be open in the evening.

Professor Fling left Thursday for Wayne, Neb., where he will speak this evening concerning the teaching of History.

Miss Walvoord, Messrs. Collins, Belden and Brookings were the new members proposed at the Union society Friday night.

Saturday evening the U. B. D. C. adopted resolutions favoring the regents furnishing books to students at cost. This is the third debating club to adopt such resolutions and clearly shows the sentiment of the student body in regard to this matter.

J. F. Boomer writes that he has been elected president of the Liberty literary society. The society consists of the teachers, students and business men of Liberty.

Mrs. I. S. P. Weeks has recently established a sewing school at the College Settlement house. She is assisted by five ladies from the university. Already over twenty pupils are in attendance.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.

The U. B. D. C. has elected the following officers: President, J. A. Maguire; vice-president, J. Plowhead; secretary, Mr. Herbert; attorneys, O. W. Meier, F. G. Hawxby; sergeant-at-arms, A. S. Harding.

The Board of Control of the College Settlement, consisting of Profs. Hodgman, Fossler and Adams and Messrs. Kuhlman, Reedy, Corey and Miss Whiting visited the Graham Taylor house Monday evening.

The question for debate in the Union Boy's Debating Club next Saturday night is: Resolved, that municipalities should own and control the natural corporations within their limits. Affirmative, Mr. Toll, negative, Mr. Watters.

STUDENTS—WE Can save you money if you buy your fuel from us. We have all kinds of COAL at reasonable prices.

Kans. and Neb. Fuel Co.,
1008 O St., Tel. 335.

Professor F. M. Fling has accepted an invitation to speak at the Congregational church at Havelock next week. The pastor of the church has arranged for a series of practical lectures to be given by specialists on different subjects. We congratulate him on his choice of a specialist in history.