

Harry Harper and Misses Shultz and Mattie Burks of Beatrice attended the Junior promenade.

Mr. A. A. Reed, principal of the Crete High School, and a delegation of Crete students took in the Charter day exercises.

D. T. Smith, jeweler 1140 O street, gives a liberal discount to all students trading with him. Watch repairs a specialty.

Miss Katharine M. Melick '96 has recently been elected English instructor in the Red Oak, Iowa, high school. Miss Melick is one of our most distinguished literary students. She has completed all the courses offered in the English department. Last spring she creditably filled the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Bates. Her ability as a verse and story writer is known to all HESPERIAN readers. Red Oak is fortunate in securing her as an instructor.

Friday evening, after the rendition of the different society programs, the society building association held a reception in Palladian hall. The hall was somewhat crowded, but this fact did not materially effect the sociability. After a half hour of hand shaking and general social intercourse, ices were served. President Evans of the building association is to be commended for his efforts in making the reception a success.

Tomorrow night occurs an event in which the whole university should be interested. It is the concert by the Y. M. C. A. Glee Club. The club has amply demonstrated during the year, their ability to please their audiences. It has a repertoire of the choicest songs varying from themes religious to the most "fetching" of college jokes. The club will be assisted by two talented soloists, Miss Lillian Chase and Cord L. Aller. The boys have been very generous in singing for different university affairs and we should prove ourselves as generous as the city which is going to do well by the boys.

The matter of the regents furnishing students text books was presented to the regents, at their regular meeting last Monday. It was urged: First, that the statutes contain such a provision. It was asked, why this had not been enforced. Second, that students desire books at lowest possible cost. Third, that there is a feeling among students that they are not obtaining books at lowest possible cost. The regents were surprised to find that such a provision was on the statutes unenforced, and chagrined to learn of the workings of the present "co-operative" plan. No action was taken, but the matter will come up at their next regular meeting.

The Junior promenade took place at the Lincoln hotel last Friday evening. The ball room was tastily decorated with the class, the university and the national colors. Twenty two dances were enjoyed. Mrs. Willoughby's orchestra furnished the music. Between the interludes refreshments were served. The patrons and patronesses were: Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean, Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Captain and Mrs. Guilfoyle, Prof. and Mrs. Richards, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd, Prof. and Mrs. Willard Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill. Those who deserve special praise for making the affair the social success that it was, are: Misses Gere, Carscadden, Schwartz, Lansing, Cropsey; Messrs. Burgert, Wiggernhorn, Morrison, Weeks, Belnap, True and Davenport.
