

to the "worse than prize-fighting" theory. It must be conceded that all outdoor sports involve a certain degree of danger of bodily harm to those participating in them, but we can never place a college amateur game, no matter how rough, in the category with a beastly prize-fight, where the brutishness of the "pug" is paid for in dollars and cents.

Miss Jessie Goodell went to Wilber, Thursday.

Dr. Senter has taken charge of the assaying class.

The University School of Agriculture will close one week from Friday.

Prof. Swezey's little girl has been quite sick for the past week but is much better.

The English club will meet at the home of Miss Edith Henry Saturday evening.

The Phi Kappi Psi fraternity gives an informal dance Saturday evening in its chapter room.

Prof. and Mrs. Adams will entertain some of the members of the faculty next Friday evening.

The "Yellow Kid" has struck the Delian society. See their program on the bulletin board.

Boys, remember that Westerfield, the pioneer barber, gives the latest style in hair cuts 117 N 13th.

Miss Mabel Grimm has been removed to the sanitarium where she is undergoing an operation upon her foot.

Chancellor MacLean is busily engaged at the capitol these days. The bill for appropriation is before the legislature.

For French Dictionaries—Feller's pocket, Cassell's, Mason's, etc., etc., at low prices go to Herpolsheimer & Co. Book Dept.

Please remember that D. T. Smith, jeweler 1140 O street, will make prices right on watches, jewelery, fountain pens and repairing of all kinds.

Dr. Bessey conducted chapel exercises Wednesday morning.

Professor Crabtree, of Nebraska City, attended the teachers' association in the university chapel, Saturday.

Mr. Howard Bruner of Omaha, cousin of Professor Bruner and Miss Amy Bruner, spent the Sabbath in the city.

The Lancaster county teachers met in the university chapel last Saturday. Chancellor MacLean gave them an interesting talk in the afternoon.

B. J. Orland of Chicago, a graduate of the U. of N., will give a series of lectures before the Electrical Engineers' club next week.

Mrs. Hill of Lexington, Neb., mother of Emma Pyrtle, arrived Wednesday for a short visit. Mrs. Hill is contemplating purchasing a home in the city.

Miss Laura Pfeiffer '97, will do institute work in South Dakota during the summer. She will teach literature and history, and also conduct classes in kindergarten work.

Resolutions, strongly in favor of football and condemning the previous resolutions were introduced by J. P. Cameron, at the U. B. D. C. last Saturday night, but were almost unanimously defeated.

The Nebraska section of the American Chemical society will meet next Friday evening March 19. in the chemical building. Papers will be read by R. S. Heltner on The Composition of American Ciders; Benton Dales, The Electrolytic Determination of Cadmium; H. A. Senter, Remarks on some German Chemical Industries. All are invited to these meetings, though they are intended primarily for chemists.

STUDENTS—We can save you money if you buy your fuel from us. We have all kinds of COAL at reasonable prices.

Hutchins & Hyatt,
1040 O Street.