

College of Law Notes.

HUGH B. DALY, REPORTER.

The juniors have taken up justice practice under Mr. Robbins.

Work on the Senior law annual is being pushed to its utmost.

The bill of D. Clem Deaver pertaining to the requirements for admission to the bar has been indefinitely postponed by the house.

Important changes are to be made in the Maxwell club. It is rumored that the Greeks will be excluded from membership.

A joint debate has been arranged between the U. B. D. C, and the Maxwell club. Peerless Baker is one of the Union representatives. New men, men who at least do not rank highest, will represent the Maxwells.

Sixty-six are now registered in the college of law, twenty-three of whom have degrees. Law students are proud of this showing. They are also proud of the fact that two of their number as against one from the 1500 students of the university proper, will stand up for our alma mater in the Kausas-Nebraska debate.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Hindman's talk to the Y. M. C. A. was greatly enjoyed by the boys. His words were of practical benefit.

The business meeting was not so well attended as it should have been. The report of the nominating committee was accepted as given and the officers elected by unanimous vote.

We have still a few of the 69c fountain pens on hand. These are 14kt gold with iridium points. Herpolsheimer & Co. book department.

All Hesperian subscribers who do not get their papers will please drop a note in the business manager's box so he can send you another copy.

Notice.

All subscribers who have not paid their subscription will do the business managers a great favor if they will settle at once. It is now near the close of the school year and all subscriptions must be paid.

Prof. C. E. Bessey is going to give a series of four lectures on "The Teaching of Botany in High Schools." The lectures will be given on Tuesdays from 5 to 6, in room 15, Nebraska Hall. The first lecture will occur March 23.

L. V. Patch has not been in school this week owing to the serious illness of and death of his grandmother. She has been staying with him here in Lincoln. Mr. Patch and his sister left Thursday evening with the body, for Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, where it will be interred.

The Graham Taylor house is reopened and work of all committees is in full progress. Only a few mild cases of scarlet fever have occurred in the neighborhood and workers need have no hesitation in going to the house again, as the rooms have all been most thoroughly disinfected.

Senator Thurston has sent to the College Settlement 250 packages of garden seeds for free distribution. It is hoped to secure also donations of flower seeds and thus enable the Board of Control to give work and amusement to both boys and girls who now flock to the Graham Taylor house in increasing numbers.

The inmates of the "Home of the Blessed," Messrs Heitzman, Wilson, Ecker, Kennedy and Abbott initiated five young ladies into the mysteries of their "Home" last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace chaperoned the party. Refreshments prepared by the young men, were served in elegant style. The young ladies were Misses Dempster, Shank, Mickey, Chappell and McCune.

Revised New Testaments, 12mo clo. published at $1. for 20c at Herpolsheimer & Co. book department.