

need for a more polished and commanding address on every side. Debates are a good beginning but they do not supply the need of oratorical ability as do the contests. Logic is only convincing when it is presentable. Each of the contesting schools will send strong men this year and the chapel should be filled on the 26th to cheer our Roper on to victory. A splendid oration and a strong delivery give us assurance of first place.

Jennie Guile '97 is quite ill with the grip.

Take the HESPERIAN for the rest of the year for 25 cents.

Prof. Nicholson went to Crawford Wednesday evening.

Prof. Fling lectured before the High School students Tuesday.

Mayme Auman is slowly recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

The Palladian boys will give a special program about the first of May.

It is reported that a number of the seniors are taking dancing lessons!

Company D will give a hop in the Lansing hall, Friday evening, March 26.

Kappa Sigma now occupies the house on the north-west corner of 25th & P sts.

A dance for the benefit of base ball will be given in Lansing hall Friday evening.

C. D. Searson of Grand Island, spent the Sabbath in the city with his brother J. W. Searson.

R. W. Thatcher will take F. S. Culver's place as assistant in the preparatory chemical laboratory.

Miss Conkling gave an interesting talk Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Her subject was Hawthorne's "Marble Faun," illustrating it with a number of views collected during her stay in Rome.

Arrangements are being made for a joint debate with Doane to be held at Crete about the middle of May by the Palladian boys debating club.

F. S. Culver has been compelled to leave school for the remainder of this year owing to sore eyes. His many friends hope he may be able to return again next fall.

At the P. B. D. C. meeting Saturday evening W. C. Green and R. H. Wessel will urge that the legislature was not justified in removing five of the Douglass county delegation. A. O. Garinger and E. F. Piper will hold to the contrary.

The Delians held a business meeting Monday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, R. A. Emerson; vice-president, Clifford Countryman; recording secretary, Margaret Countryman; corresponding secretary, G. I. Gates; critic, J. A. Sargent; treasurer, Will Horn; sergeant-at-arms, D. A. Killen; slate bearer, Harry Sackett; musical secretaries, Bessie Walker and O. T. Reedy.

Prof. Fling will lecture at Beatrice April 2nd before the S. E. Nebraska Teachers' association on "Mirabeau, the Man and the Opportunity." Dr. Wolfe will lecture on April 3rd on "Child Study—Its Practical Value." Other well known names appearing on the program are Miss May Whiting, C. E. Williams, V. R. McLucas, A. H. Bigelow, S. H. Martin and J. W. Searson.

The Palladian society has elected the following officers for the spring term: Miss Helena Redford president; Miss Ida W. Heise vice-president; Miss Manda Sundean recording secretary; Frank Miller assistant secretary; Miss Olive Thayer corresponding secretary; E. B. Perry critic; R. S. Hunt treasurer; Miss Ella Mathews historian; H. O. Sutton music secretary and E. F. Piper, the retiring president, sergeant-at-arms.