

Dr. Clyde Davis, Dentist, Richards Blk.

Miss Edith Mickey of Osceola, is visiting her sister.

1330 O street. Jas. Kolbach custom shoe shop.

Ed. Cram has returned from his trip to Fairbury.

Prof. Crabtree of Beatrice, was at the university Saturday.

Best work in the city. Merchant's Barber Shop.

Company D will give its first annual hop this evening, March 26.

Miss Marie Pollard of Nehawka visited university friends Monday.

Dr. Hodgman's dental office, 1105 O street. Special rates to students.

George Heimrod is attending classes again after a few days illness.

The First Lieutenants took charge of companies at the last battalion drill.

Call and see our new hydraulic chairs at 1144 O street. R & C

O. W. Belden has gone home, at Dawson, Neb., to remain about a week.

J. A. McFall, a former student, is visiting the university a few days.

The Unions visited the other societies during the social hour last Friday night.

C. J. Allen is attending classes again after a few days tussle with the measles.

Matthews has reduced his board to $1.75. Board better than ever.

R. D. Elliott has been confined to his room for several days on account of sickness.

Boys, remember that Westerfield, the pioneer barber, gives the latest style in hair cuts 117 N 13th.

Miss Katherine Woods of Schuyler, is visiting Misses Bridge and Mullekin this week.

Students, see the ad. of Mr. Haladay on our back sheet. Drop in and try one of those 15c meals.

Miss Kate Joyce went to Avoca Iowa, Friday for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

O. H. Allen and Wm. Hunter, spent a week killing antelope, geese, jack rabbits, etc., at Chadron.

Guy L. Smith and Bracton Broady were initiated into Alpha Theta Chi Thursday night

The spring recess begins Wednesday evening, March 31st and ends 8 a. m., Tuesday April 6th.

C. G. Pearse, superintendent of the Omaha school, was in Lincoln Saturday and visited with his brother Arthur.

The Junior Laws have organized a ball team and are looking forward to some match games with the class teams.

Miss Seofield has been playing for chapel exercises during the absence of Prof. Kimball, who is out with the Glee Club.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.

The dance given last Friday evening for the benefit of the base ball team was poorly attended although tickets sold fairly well.

Miss Chappell, A. S. Harding and J. W. Searson will go to Greenwood this evening to act as judges in the High School declamatory contest.

Bumstead & Tuttle make suits according to styles advanced by the Nat'l Tailors exchange. They are the only tailors in the city that are able to do this.

An interesting meeting of the Nebraska section of the American Chemical Society was held Friday evening. Papers were read by R. S. Hiltner and Benton Dales. Dr. Senter talked on German factories.

Please remember that D. T. Smith, jeweler 1140 O street, will make prices right on watches, jewelry, fountain pens and repairing of all kinds.