

Dr. Clark is continuing his six o'clock training class. All those who intend to enter the lists on field day should commence to train at once.

Please remember that D. T. Smith, jeweler 1140 O street, will make prices right on watches, jewelry, fountain pens and repairing of all kinds.

Prof. Condra, with the whole high school class, visited the geological and zoological laboratories the first of the week.

STUDENTS—We can save you money if you buy your fuel from us. We have all kinds of COAL at reasonable prices.

Hutchins & Hyatt,
1040 O Street.

The "Delian Musical Recital" given last Friday night was well rendered and much enjoyed. Some choice selections were given. The Combophonic orchestra under the direction of O. H. Allen was especially good.

German, French and Latin dictionaries will be supplied by us to students of the university at $1.12½ each. These are regular $1.50 editions. Book dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

Messrs Conell and Fisher gave an illustrated geological talk at the Graham Taylor house last Thursday evening. This is one more department contributing its mite to the good work being done there.

A new debating club called the W. and H. has been formed. Meetings will be held semi-monthly. The officers are: president, B. F. Reagan; vice-president, A. L. Hoagland; secretary, Lewis Ryan.

Next Saturday evening the D. B. D. C. debates the question: Resolved, that the honor system is better than the patrol system in examinations. Leaders, Woodruff, Mill; Sayer and Dudley.

Misses Ashford and McGuffey, Messrs. Johnson and Curtis are confined to their rooms with the measles.

Last Friday it was rumored among the Palladian girls that something out of the ordinary was being prepared for that evening; however the one girl in the secret kept it better than a boy would admit possible.

The U. B. D. C. inaugurated the following officers last Saturday evening: O. W. Meier, preident; W. H. Rhodes, vice president; G. E. Towle, secretary; J. A. Maguire, the retiring president, sargeant-at-arms; John Plowhead and A. Bolinback, attorneys.

A new annual oratorical contest has been established in the Delian society. O. H. Allen, D. L. Killen and J. D. Denison, the originators of the movement, each give five dollars to the winner and the society gives ten dollars to the person getting second place.

By visiting Herpolsheimer & Co's. new millinery department, a lady may secure a strictly up-to-date hat without having to pay a fancy price for it, as here will be found all the newest and most popular shapes as well as the most fashionable trimmings at the lowest prices ever quoted on stylish headwear. Students trade especially solicited.

$3.00 Buys a Handsome Shoe in any of the new shades at the » » »

FOOT FORM

1213

O

Street

See our

Window

Sanderson-Schuremay
THE FOOT FORM STORE and DAVIS.