

THE BISON WALLOW.

Resin weeds along the rut
 Where freighter's wheel has cut
 In the dirt beneath the sod,
 Groaning, grinding iron-shod
 To the night-camp in the hollow,—
 Near the spring and bison wallow
 An old charred stump where once stood
 A gray whispering cotton-wood;
 Crickets sing beside the spring;
 Eager herds at sunset string
 In lowing, dusty files that follow
 Wheel ruts to the bison wallow.

JOSEPH A. SARGENT.

AENONE.

Aenone's cry of passion long ago
 Failed in the sunny windswept plains of Troy.
 And I today hear but the dying tone.
 Pain lives no longer than free joy,
 Her voice that echoed bitter "Let me die,"
 Steals now upon me like the evening's breath!
 "Time gave a better lover far than thou, Paris."
 And I know she speaks of Death.

ANNIE PREY.

Read the Armstrong Clothing Co's ad. in this paper.

Five senior girls attended the Senior promenade.

Boys go down to the R & C shop and get the latest hair cuts.

The Y. W. C. A. will give an entertainment in chapel a week from Saturday.

Miss Belle Cross of the Wesleyan university, is taking work in literature under Prof. Peterson.

Boys, remember that Westerfield, the pioneer barber, gives the latest style in hair cuts 117 N 3th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Goodell, of Wilber were visitors at the university Monday. Mr. Goodell is an ex-student.

The proper furnishing goods for parties promenades, etc. can be had always of Bumstead & Tuttle, 117 So. 10th.

The Senior promenade was a brilliant affair. The weather did not interfere in the least. About sixty couples were present. The senior glee club entertained the dancers between dances.

Dr. Clyde Davis, Dentist, Richards Blk.

Emily McNeal and Katherine Burt have been confined to their rooms with the measles.

Miss Mary Packard, a teacher in the schools of Weeping Water, spent Saturday with her sister, Miss Hattie.

Please remember that D. T. Smith jeweler 1140 O street, will make prices right on watches, jewelry, fountain pens and repairing of all kinds.

Mr. Weaver had the misfortune to get some potassium cyanide in one of his eyes last Friday while working in the chemistry laboratory.

Great special hat and cap sale, one fifth off on all 1897 styles. Nobbiest styles in the city. Call early. Armstrong Clothing Co.

The attendance at the literary societies last Friday night was very small on account of the rain. All who attended met in Palladian hall and enjoyed an impromptu program.

German, French and Latin dictionaries will be supplied by us to students of the university at $1.12½ each. These are regular $1.50 editions. Book dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

The graduate club will hold their semi-annual meeting Tuesday night in room 4 of the library building. Papers will be read by Dr. H. C. Peterson, Misses Louisa Pound, Edna Bullock and Mr T. E. Doubt.

The English club met with Miss Amy Bruner last Saturday evening. The following program was rendered: story, Miss Green; poem, Miss Bruner; story, Mr. Shreve. After the program those present were called upon to write a poem on a flower which was given them. Some excellent verses were written.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.