

See King's ad. on page 7.

C. E. Matson was a sojourner in Nebraska City and Auburn last week.

For high polish or domestic work, try THE BEST LAUNDRY. We do not break collars, they are turned by hand. 2249 O Street. Phone 579.

No student should fail to see the next issue of Harper's Weekly. It will be a Grant memorial number. In quality it promises to be excellent.

The biennial meeting of the graduate club met Tuesday evening. Papers were read by Dr. H. C. Peterson, Miss Louise Pound, Miss Edna Bullock and Mr. Doubt.

As a substitute for indoor games at the Graham-Taylor house the croquet set recently secured affords much profitable amusement. The grounds were well prepared by Mr. Fonquet.

RESOLVED, That the cheapest place in Lincoln to buy Student's Note Books, History Paper, Fountain Pens, Dictionaries, Paper covered Novels and all books, stationery and college supplies in is the Book Department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

J. W. Searson and C. A. Fisher went up to the high school this week. Professor Searson lectured on 'History.' The address was illustrated by lantern pictures operated by Mr. Fisher. In short J. W. did the "windy voluminous" act while Cassius did the work.

The Delian and Palladian boys debating clubs will have a joint debate Saturday evening in Delian hall. The question to be discussed is, "Resolved, that the United States government should own and operate the railroads within its borders." The P. B. D. C. has the affirmative and is represented by S. W. Pinkerton, E. F. Piper and A. Waterman; the D. B. D. C. by Chambers, Paine and Theobald.

The sewing school at the college settlement closed its work for the year last Saturday afternoon. The ice cream social given at the home of Mrs. T. M. Hodgman was well attended. Mrs. Hodgman deserves much credit for what she has done to build up this branch of the settlement work.

The address of President N. S. Harwood before the university Political Economy club has been postponed until next Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is the "Expediency of Continuing the National Banking System." This promises to be one of the most interesting lectures given before the club this year. The club meets in room 23 of the library building.

The university debating association met Monday and voted to sanction the proposition of Kansas university to have the judges mark on the merits of the 'sides' of the debate, instead of as heretofore, on the merits of the individual debater. Messrs Maguire, Perry and Searson were appointed a committee to receive and recommend amendments to the constitution of the local association.

For The Very Latest

Shades and Styles

AT

Reasonable

Prices

Call on Us

We have

'EM

Try OUR

$3 Shoes

Sanderson-Schutemay

THE FOOT FORM STORE

and DAVIS.