

The Senior picnic was postponed to Saturday May 9th.

The campus is being made the practice ground for the field day sports.

Mrs. Densmore of Hebron, Nebr., is visiting her daughter, Miss Harriet.

The fraternities will give a dancing party at the Beach Friday evening, May 14th.

Mrs. Sudborough, president of the State Child-Study Association, addressed the class in child-study Wednesday evening.

Now is the time to secure your spring and summer gown, when the linings and outittings cost you absolutely nothing. This week at Herpolsheimer & Co.'s O. A. Bertell, who was called to his home at St. Edwards by the sudden death of his mother, has decided not to return to the university this year.

Invitations have been issued by the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity to an "at home" at their fraternity house 1630 G street, Friday evening May 7. The reception promises to be a brilliant affair.

German, French and Latin dictionaries will be supplied by us to students of the university at $1.12½ each. These are regular $1.50 editions. Book dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

The building association elected the following officers last Friday evening in Delian hall: H. O. Sutton, president; W. G. Kinton, vice-president; Hattie Packard, secretary.

The generous were persecuted this week. The depleted condition of the treasuries of both the oratorical and debating associations made it necessary to circulate subscriptions in order to raise money to send our orator to Columbia and our debaters to Lawrence. Faculty and students responded to the extent of over $40.

The Y. W. C. A. entertainment will be given in the chapel Thursday evening May 13. The program is in charge of Mrs. Manning. "The Romance of the Ganges" will be one of the principal features of the entertainment.

The annual exhibition of the young ladies' gymnasium classes will be held in the armory Saturday evening. There will be exercises in the bar drill, apparatus work, flying rings, marching, fencing, and if time will permit, the advanced class will play a game of basket ball.

The Dress Goods Department at Herpolsheimer & Co.'s has been the center of interest for economical buyers during the past week. Here they not only quote special prices on strictly-up-to-date dress patterns, but give the linings and outittings (as advertised) absolutely free.

The special program given by the Union boys last Friday evening, was strikingly original. The Olympic Council with Jove I. presiding was represented. Norman Shreve made a splendid Jove and he was well supported by the rest of the council. The solo by H. S. Evans was heartily applauded and was responded to by a pathetic solo by W. G. Kinton, The Fantastic Steps, one of the best numbers on the program and which would have to be seen to be appreciated.

$2.00 $2.50 $3.00

OXFORDS

in the new shades that will Please YOU

1213
O STREET

Sanderson-Schureman
THE FOOT FORM STORE and DAVIS.