

Story.

Scene I. Prof. C. writing a letter to his sister; his little five year old girl also writing (?) to her auntie. Prof. C. has just written: "Last year my fame was confined to my home state but I spoke last week at Council Bluffs so that my name is now known in two states at least" etc.

Scene II. Sm -girl looks up suddenly and says: "Papa, do cows blow their horns?" Prof. C. "No I think not." "Well, we do don't we, papa?"

Dr. Clyde Davis, Dentist, Richards Blk.

C. C. Hull was a University caller this week.

Clyde Hull, of Fremont is visiting his brother.

W. W. Funke of Pickerell is visiting University friends.

Prof. Ward delivered a lecture at Nebraska City Friday evening.

Boys go down to the R & C shop and get the latest hair cuts.

The English Club has elected Miss Cora Garber to membership.

Prof. Rogers, science teacher at Beatrice, visited the University, Saturday.

J. T. Jones, of Weeping Water spent Sunday with G. C. Howard and Allan Congdon.

Rumor has it that F. S. Philbrick will hold a scholarship in American history next year.

Boys, remember that Westerfield, the pioneer barber, gives the latest style in hair cuts 117 N 3th.

Misses Daisy Hauk and Mae Colson spent Sunday in Beatrice the guests of Miss Elsie Beaver.

Will McKay and Phil Russell went down to Omaha last week in the interests of the Junior Annual.

Lady students can find no better place to buy millinery than at Mrs. Gosper's.

The boys will give their gymnasium exhibition next Saturday night.

Miss Etta Gray was visiting her many University friends a few days last week.

Miss Laffin of Crab Orchard, spent a few days with her friend, Miss Nettie Henry, last week.

Prof. Caldwell will give the commencement address of the Palmyra high school May 28; also of Tobias May 31.

A. S. Harding will instruct in American History and Literature in the Seward County institute May 31st to June 4.

The Phi Psis entertained last Friday evening. Members of other fraternities, members of the faculty and a number of outsiders were present.

Bamstead & Tuttle did some good work in advertising the Glee Club the first three days of this week, devoting their entire window to scarlet and cream and the club picture.

The joint program of the building association will occur May 29 instead of June 5, as catalogued. The date has been changed in order that more students may be able to attend.

The English Club met at the home of Miss Annie Prey last Saturday evening. Owing to the rain but few were in attendance. Mr. Piper read some poems, Miss Prey and Mrs. Prey read stories.

The critics believe that they have found the poet of the present day in Rudyard Kipling. "His "Seven Seas" has received more attention at their hands than the productions of any poet have received in more than a decade. The desire for change in fiction as well as dress is apparent in the reputation which "Quo Vadis" by Seinkievics is achieving. The story is one of the time of Nero and deals with the persecution of the early Christians. Both books as well as all recent publications can be had at Book Dep't Herpolsheimer & Co.