

Miss Lizzie Harvey of Wilber, was a visitor at the university Wednesday.

Rena Chappell, who has been in Colorado the past year has returned to her home.

Chancellor MacLean gave a toast at the State Dental Association Wednesday evening.

Chancellor MacLean will give a reception to the faculty and seniors at his home, Tuesday June 1st.

The senior class has had a couple of interesting meetings this week. The senior play was under discussion.

Professor Fossler gave an interesting talk in chapel Thursday morning, reviewing the life and works of Ibsen.

Dr. H. B. Ward gave a lecture to the graduating class of the Sterling, Nebr., High School Wednesday evening.

R. A. Emerson, '97, now of Washington, D. C., has returned to the university to remain until after commencement.

The evening of May 29th the Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean will give a reception to the Senior law students at their home.

Chancellor George E. MacLean will deliver the baccalaureate address again this year. It will be given in the Lansing theatre June 6.

Miss Scofield's pupils gave a recital in the chapel Wednesday evening. In spite of the rainy evening, a number were present to enjoy the exercises.

Miss Georgia Camp and Miss Blanche Garten are in attendance at the national convention of the Delta fraternity held this week at Ithica, New York.

Invitations are out for the Wedding of Miss Clara Buckstaff and Dr. Wolcott of the State University. Miss Buckstaff has been a student at the university the past year. Dr. Wolcott is an assistant in the Zoological department.

Saturday evening the Delian boys discuss the question, Resolved, that a common-school education should be a requisite for the right of suffrage. Leaders: Messrs. Sayer, McCallum, Theobald and O. A. Davis.

Dr. Beardshear, president of the Iowa Agricultural college, will speak in the First Baptist church, Sunday evening under the auspices of the Christian Associations in the university. Dr. Beardshear comes to Lincoln with the highest recommendations as an orator and thinker, and he is known all over the west as a leading educator. Every student is invited to hear the address.

Dr. William Trelease, the director of the Missouri Botanical Gardens of St. Louis, and one of the foremost of American botanists, will deliver the annual address before the Botanical Seminar on Saturday evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock, in the botanical lecture room in Nebraska hall. His topic should be of interest to many people outside of botanical circles, since it deals with a phase of library management which has become of increasing importance in these days of growing departmental libraries. He speaks on "The Classification of a Botanical Library."

If you like :::
Handsome
Good-fitting
SHOES,

Trade at the Foot
Form

1213
O STREET

Sanderson-Schwemay
THE FOOT-FORM STORE
and DAVIS.