

What They are Going to Do.

J. E. Pearson will make up French.

E. A. Moore will remain here to make up French.

Wm. T. Horne will deal in ice at University Place.

Editor Morse will sell stereoptican views for recreation.

Emma Boose '96 will probably go to San Francisco.

S. W. Pinkerton will remain here to make up French.

John Boose will clerk on the farm and watch the post office.

Miss Mary Jones, librarian, will spend the summer in Europe.

Will McKay will spend the summer in experimenting with hair-restorers.

R. A. Emerson will return to his duties at Washington after commencement.

H. O. Sutton will spend the summer on a farm near Tecumseh—in spirit at least.

Maud Atkinson will tour as far as Yellow Stone Park. Denver is in her circuit.

Hugh Walker will spend the summer in getting fat. He will go to Princeton in the fall.

E. A. Pillsbury will spend the summer in searing the people into buying stereoscopic views.

Quartermaster J. P. Cameron is hoping for an appointment to spend the summer at West Point.

Fred Warren and R. S. Baker have been chosen as private counsel for the Chancellor and regents.

Steve Corey will go to San Francisco. He will spend the rest of the summer with his church at Waterloo.

Joe Sayer will spend his time riding out his transportation by going to see various acquaintances of the year.

R. H. Graham will do some institute teaching, and spend the rest of his time in making peace with the Greeks.

C. J. Elmore '95 who has been teaching in the high school at Crete, will spend the summer at the University of Chicago.

O. T. Reedy will stay in Lincoln and make up two year's French, Hydraulics, Electrocutarataxis, thesis, junior themes, and Electrocutation. The remainder of his time will be spent in sailing on the lake.

Miss Scofield's piano recital was repeated Saturday evening.

Carl Bessey will entertain a number of his friends at his home Tuesday evening.

Miss Nellie Lau left Sunday with her parents for a several months sojourn in Germany.

Ray Teele and John Saville tested their pedestrian ability by a walk to Milford Sunday.

The senior invitations have arrived and are the neatest that have been had by any class for some time.

The Pan-Hellenic dancing party takes place at the Beach Tuesday evening. It promises to be the most pleasant social event of the year.

President Beardshear, of the Iowa Agricultural College conducted chapel exercises Monday morning. He made a few remarks to the students after chapel.

The lawn party given by the Union society at Anna Anderson's Monday evening was a very enjoyable affair. About fifty were present and the evening was spent in games and dancing.

The following members of the Phi Beta Kappa were announced in chapel Tuesday morning: J. V. Cortelou, Benton Dales, Ada Graham, Ida W. Heise, T. M. Moss, C. S. Norton, Nettie E. Philbrick, E. F. Piper, L. C. Smith, Geo. H. Thomas and Julia Wort.