

Commencement.

The baccalaureate sermon will be given in the Lansing, Sunday evening June 6, by Chancellor MacLean. No tickets will be issued. Seats will be reserved for Seniors and faculty.

Monday June 7, will be the lawyer's day. President J. M. Woolworth of the American Bar Association is the commencement orator of the law class of '97. He will give his address in the evening at the Lansing. Mr. Woolworth is one of the leading lawyers of the west. The lawyers may congratulate themselves on being able to secure such a commencement speaker.

On Tuesday there will be the class day exercises and the commencement concert in the evening. Wednesday is Alumni day. This day many former classes will have reunions. Wednesday evening Mrs. H. H. Wilson, an alumnus of the university will deliver the alumni oration at the Lansing. At 2:30 Wednesday afternoon Edward Everett Hale will speak at the Lansing. There will be no tickets issued for admission to the lecture. The purpose of the Wednesday lecture is to give more people a chance to hear the distinguished speaker, than can be accommodated at the Thursday evening lecture. At 4 p. m. Wednesday, Chancellor MacLean will address the joint meeting of the alumni association.

Thursday is commencement day. The commencement address of Edward Everett Hale will take place in the Lansing, beginning promptly at 10 a. m. The Alumni banquet will follow. In the evening the usual reception will be given to the public in the art gallery of the library building.

Dr. Hodgman's dental office, 1105 O street. Special rates to students.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.

J. P. Sedgwick '96 is visiting university friends.

Ida Heise will teach in the Nebraska City high school next year.

Sadie Pyrtle returned Sunday from a short visit to Sherman, Iowa.

A. W. Martin law '96, of Rochister was a university caller last week.

Rachael Carr of Staplehurst came up Tuesday to remain through commencement.

President N. S. Harwood addressed the political economy club Monday night on the "National Bank and Bank Currency."

The English club elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, Miss Lucy Green; vice-president, Mr. Jos. Sargent; secretary-treasurer, Miss Edith Henry.

The Palladians will give a short senior program Friday night. The remainder of the evening will be spent in a good social time. It will be the last meeting of the year.

When the students return to Lincoln in the fall they should remember that Bumstead & Tuttle's store is the best place to buy tailor made suits and furnishings.

The P. B. D. C. elected the following officers this week: J. E. Pearson, president; Mr. Sturdwant vice president; W. O. Ayer, secretary and H. B. Stewart, the retiring president, sergeant-at-arms.

Don't Abuse Your Eyes.

If you go on allowing your eyes to smart and ache and trouble you, you may never be able to make them strong again. I have studied the eye and I know what I say is correct. The eye is a patient, long suffering organ, but will snap at last and then all the oculists and opticians in the world cannot put it together again. Don't procrastinate. Any irritation whatever about the eye means something. Come and find out Examination free

E. S. KING, Refracting Optician.
1300 O Street.