

Local and Personal.

J. W. Searson has the class in European history every fourth hour.

Elsie Bixby, who is teaching at Elmwood, visited with Bertha Johnston last week.

A meeting of the senior class is called for Oct. 5, to consider senior insignia and football.

Rev. Nelson, a returned missionary from Syria, gave a short address in chapel Monday morning.

J. L. Conger writes us to send him the HESPERIAN at Emerson, Iowa, where he is teaching.

Word was received Tuesday of the death of George Hellier of Nebraska City. He was a student in the University last year.

J. E. Cherney, who entered school this fall, has been compelled to return to his home at North Bend on account of sickness.

C. W. Taylor returned to the University Monday evening. Charley looks as though work and Dakota agreed with him.

Miss Edith Hutchinson of Peru, visited over Sunday with her brother A. I. Hutchinson and the Misses Bertha and Nona Johnston.

Guy Howard has secured a position with the well known shoe firm of Sanderson, Schuerman & Davis where he works on Saturday.

Prof. Wolfe will remain in Lincoln the coming year. He will carry on his investigations in Psychology and lecture now and then at the Universatist church.

S. W. Pinkerton's smiling face meets University people at Paine & Warfel's on Saturdays. C. L. Spenser holds a similar position with Bumstead & Tuttle.

Candidates for the Glee club were examined Wednesday evening at the conservatory. There are eight places to be filled this year. It is rumored that they will be filled on merit.

R. P. Teele has returned from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he was called by the serious illness and death of his mother. Mr. Teele's mother and sister moved to Dakota from Milford, Neb. only the week before last.

History Paper, ruled or plain, 5c per 100 Book Department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Co-op is selling stationary at a very low figure.

Miss Jessie Goodell, a last year student, is visiting her many university friends.

C. T. Mastin '00 has returned to the University. He will enter the College of Law.

Last Monday in the chemical laboratory an alcoholic explosion occurred. A small fire started but was soon extinguished.

Lincoln's "Hustlers" are the people to buy of, if you don't know 'em, try their Three "Beauts." They are cheap and hot as—! Pennsylvania also. Phone 440. 1206 O.

Alumni Notes.

Wm. Grant '97, Kappa Sigma, spent Sunday in the city with friends.

Mr. Lehmer class of '93, will go to Mexico this fall to engage in railroad work.

Horace Whitmore B. A. 1895, is studying for a second degree in American history.

Mrs. Ida I. Atkinson, B. L., 1879, is studying for her Ph. D. in Chicago university.

Miss Mary Horne '96, returned last Friday to her position in the Crerar Library, Chicago.

C. M. Skiles '92 now an attorney of Ulysses, Nebr. visited the University a couple of days this week.

Lawrence Packard '97 Sigma Chi, left yesterday for Chicago. He will attend Northwestern Medical College.

Prof. Geo. E. Howard, class of '76, addressed the graduate seminar in American history Thursday evening.

L. E. Troyer, who graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1892, is working in Baptist Chapel Car Service.

A. A. Monroe '84, now superintendant of the South Omaha schools, was in Lincoln last Saturday attending a meeting of the State Examining Committee.

Paul F. Clark B. A. '87, is working for a Master's degree in the department of American history. Mr. Clark has been practicing law in Lincoln since his graduation.

R. S. Baker '97, the University Cicero, has returned to the University with all his "eloquence, altruism and ambition." He will work for an M. A. in the Political Science department.

You can get all the latest styles for $3 at 1213 O street