

Alumni Notes.

Mr. R. L. Margh '84, is now preaching in Iowa.

Prof. A. G. Warner, '85, who has had leave of absence from his position as head of the Political Science department in Leland Stanford during the past two years, is back at his post. He expects to remain till December.

Fred Hyde '92, who visited in Lincoln for about two weeks, left last week for Denver. He has been rusticiating for his health during the past year in Western Nebraska and Wyoming.

Mr. U. N. Wagner '88, is very successful in his position as principal of the Hebron Schools.

Mr. E. B. Sherman '95, was seen at chapel Friday morning.

Mr. Hart '97, was in the city Friday and Saturday attending the meeting of Superintendants.

Mr. A. A. Monroe '84, who has been superintendent of the South Omaha schools for twelve years, attended the meeting of Superintendents last week.

Miss Nellie Griggs B. A. '94, went to New York Tuesday. She will remain there during the winter to study music.

College of Law Notes.

Clee Tishue has re-entered the college taking up the work of the senior class.

O. W. Belden made a business trip to Omaha Saturday.

Prof. Robbins organized the class in case study last Tuesday.

Mr. Wagner is making quite a reputation as a long distance talker. Members of the junior class insist that he is the equal of Col. John Martin Tucker.

Mr. Kringer of Ames College has entered the college. He was a member of the famous Ames football team of '93.

At the Maxwell club meeting Saturday evening Denison and Gibson urged the justness and equity of the deficiency judgment law. Kemp and Lyonds argued from the other standpoint. The general discussion was lively. Mr. Lamb presided during the parliamentary scrap.

Wesleyan-University.

The line-up for tomorrow's game with Wesleyan is as follows: Funke l e stringer; Fitchie l t Pearse; Kingsburg l g Hansen; Bornell c Herbert; Brew r g Turner; Gilbert, Capt. r t Hayward; Lemou r e Wiggins; Stevenson q Cowgill; Bailey l h Schwartz-Montgomery; Carver r h Williams; Irwin f b Shedd Capt.

Minstrels Tomorrow Evening.

The minstrel show for the benefit of football will be given in the chapel Saturday evening. The boys have been working hard to make the entertainment a success and deserves a large audience. Remember that the proceeds go to football.

Among the Greeks.

Miss Martha Burks '95 a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority was at the University Saturday, Oct. 16.

Harley Hewitt was initiated into the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity last Saturday evening.

Phi Delta Theta initiated Charles Abbott of Lincoln last Saturday night.

Wm. Hammang, Nebraska's center on the '95 football team, was here to witness the Tarkio-State game.

C. C. Griggs is now at Galena S. D. in the employ of an assaying Co.

Delta Gamma gave a very enjoyable party last Friday evening at the home of Miss Helen Woods. About twenty couples were present. It was the coming out party of the recently initiated members.

Kappa Kappa Gamma will give a party at the home of Miss Whedon next Friday evening. This will serve to introduce the new Kappas to the University public.

At Lausung Theatre, Thursday, Oct. 28, Klaw & Erlanger's Third Annual review In Gay New York will appear with 75 people in the caste. The press generally speaks well of this entertainment and if it is half as gay as New York it must be all right. Popular prices of admission. See their ad.

We can supply you with all the latest music at less than half the published price. We carry in stock a large line of Folios both instrumental & vocal at 1/2 less price than you can buy them elsewhere. Following are special for next week:

"In Shadow of the Pines," "Bells of the Season" - Two step, "In the Baggage Coach Ahead" each 21c. "Some Day Perhaps You'll Know," "Playing Under the Apple Tree," 19c each.

Music Dept. HERFOLSHEIMER & CO.

Commencing next Monday, Oct. 25th, Faust Bros. Big Vanderville Show and London Bell Ringers will give entertainments nightly at the Funke Opera House. This show comes to us highly recommended and we think it will be worth the prices which are low as will be seen by reference to their advertisement which may be found in another column.

All purchasers of Fountain Pens in our Book Department during the coming week will receive a silver plated Fountain Pen Holder free. Our 69c Fountain Pen still continues to be the most popular pen in the city with University Students. A full line of "Century" & Waterman's "Ideal" Pens in stock. HERFOLSHEIMER & CO.

In spite of the rainy weather about twenty-five senior girls attended the reception at Miss Lucy Green's Saturday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Every one had a very enjoyable time.