

BIYBY'S RETREAT.

Freshman (at Palladian Hallowe'en party)
Will cider make a fellow drunk?

Senior: Naw.

Freshman: (To his chum at 1 a. m.) Prithee, lead me in.

The minstrels, by appearing at the Funke Tuesday night, have entered the professional class. Hereafter they will not be allowed to appear on any strictly University amateur program. The authorities have so decreed.

SOBER "JIMMIE"—A SONNET.

Implored Muse, by whom the poets sing,
Reveal me him who more than all besides
With ancient jokes appears well satisfied;
Of whom the freshman said but yester spring,
"He rents his office out to Dr. Fling,"
Who long, to drink the wine of Wit has tried
Has knocked at Satires door and been denied;
And now's in league to lower, Oh Muse, thy wing.

Disclose him springing gags diluvian old,
Anon, chagrined, explaining where the point
is laid;

And tell how he, for years and years a pop,
Was herding lambs in Marcus Hanna's fold.
And wilt thou say for what the change is made?
No need, for all "weel ken" what made him
flop.

THE LATEST.

And will you hear my plaintive song?
I'll make my meaning plain;
To hear me through will not take long,
I've lost my senior cane.

I dreamed when but a "fresh" new-blown—
Alas, it gives me pain
To think that now a scholar grown,
I've lost my senior cane.

Through every sophomoric haze
The vision came again—
Alas 'twill shorten half my days,
I've lost my senior cane.

And now, a total wreck am I;
And now I live in vain,
For I can only sigh and sigh,
I've lost my senior cane.

Dear friends you see I'm mostly done,

This is my final strain;
Come watch me thump that sonofagun
That swiped my senior cane.

From "Senior Songs" by E. A. Moore.

R. & C. stands for Richerson & Cole, the popular barbers at 1144 O Street.

The Zoological club met Tuesday evening.
Papers were read by Mr. Lyman, Miss Corr,
Mr. Bessey and Dr. Wolcott.

Inspector Crabtree made a visit to the Wymore and Beatrice high schools this week.
He also arranged to be present at the Corn
Carnival at Beatrice Thursday.

"Belle of the Season Two Step," "In the Baggage Coach Ahead," "Isabelle" song,
"Some Day You'll Know" special this week at 21c. A full line of violin, guitar and mandolin folios and methods at greatly reduced prices. Music Dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

CLUBBING OFFER—Both the HESPERIAN and the Western College Magazine will be sent to all new subscribers for $1. The subscription price of each is $1, so you get two dollars worth of reading matter for one dollar. Now is the time to subscribe.

Scotch Linen writing paper rough or smooth finish per lb. 20 cents. Scotch Linen Envelopes to match above per box of 125, 40 cents.
Irish Linen paper rough or smooth finish per
lb. 25 cents. 125 Irish Linen envelopes 40 cents. 100 Engraved cards and plates, $1.

Book and Stationery Department,

HERPOLSCHEIMER & Co.

Funke Opera House.

F. C. ZEHRUNG, Manager,
CORNER O AND 12th STREETS.

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5-6
- Litz & Davis' -

Big Spectacular Production of Rider Haggard's

..... "SHE"

We carry all the scenery used in this performance
25,000 running feet of it.

Prices $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c.
Seats on sale Thursday 10 a. m. Bargain Matinee
Saturday 2:30; Prices, adults 50c, children 25c.

TUESDAY, NOV. 9.

The Man Who Wrote "Down Went McGinty."
JOE D. FLYNN, in McGinty
the Sport.

Musical Farce Comedy. Prices, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c.
Seats on sale Monday 10 a. m.