

Miss Tremain will lead the Y. W. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon.

R. M. Harris '97, who is teaching at Waboo, visited University friends last Saturday.

E. A. Moore received his cane Wednesday after having been denied the privilege of carrying it for nearly two weeks. 'Zeke' says he will never loan it again—to a girl at least.

Any person bringing this advertisement and 19c to Herpolsheimer Music Department, will get a copy of the latest song "On the Banks of the Wabash Far Away."

The Hub makes its bow to the public this week through the columns of the HESPERIAN. Read the ad, examine prices and goods and be convinced.

Box Calf Hand Sewed Shoes, New toe $3. Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

James Whitcomb Riley will read from his own works and impersonate his own characters, in the Lansing theatre, Monday night, November 22nd. This engagement is under the patronage of the woman's clubs of this city.

The junior football team played the Wesleyan second eleven Wednesday. The score stood 2-4 in favor of Wesleyan.

The recital by the faculty of the School of Music Wednesday evening was fully up to the average. The lower part of the chapel was well filled.

The class of '97 met Wednesday afternoon to consider a permanent organization. They will meet again Monday to perfect an organization and elect officers.

Nice Dress Shoe, Vesting Top, Coin toe $3. Foot Form Store, 1213 O st.

Shows an Interest in the Great Game.

Appropriate to the coming contest on the gridiron between Kansas and Nebraska, the popular firm of Herpolsheimer & Co. have decorated their entire corner window with scarlet and cream bunting. A 'typical' Uni. girl is dressed in her University colors as the advance agent of victory. The presence of the regulation pig skin fills one with an uncontrollable desire to come out to see the decisive game.

Herpolsheimer & Co

SCARLET and CREAM

will predominate at the Big Store on Saturday and to every student calling for one, we will give a handsome

Scarlet and Cream Pennant

ABSOLUTELY FREE

These will be just the thing to use at the football game and why not have one when they cost you absolutely nothing.

WE WILL WIN

Your trade for every sale we make will make us many more.

HERPOLSHEIMER & CO.

SEE OUR CORNER WINDOW!