

College of Law Notes.

The HESPERIAN and the Helper both one year for $1.50.

The Maxwell club will discuss the woman's suffrage question Saturday evening.

The class of '98 has decided to issue an annual, or as the legal lights call it a digest.

James A. Brown '98 has returned. Though late he expects to finish with his class.

Dr. Green began his course of ten lectures on medical jurisprudence this week.

All are glad to see John Delos Denison about the law room again.

The junior class met this morning to adopt a constitution and elect officers.

A number of the lawyers have registered for the Kansas-Nebraska preliminaries.

The joint debate between the Maxwells and the Unions has been postponed until Nov. 20.

G. A. Warfield '98 has re-entered. Mr. Warfield has been engaged in teaching for the past two months.

N. R. Greenfield '97, now a leading attorney of Lexington, Neb., was a visitor this week.

W. A. Myers of Alma and Mr. McGuire of Edison entered the college this week. Both expect to graduate with '98.

E. E. Placek '97 will be deputy county treasurer of Fillmore Co. after Jan. 1. That accounts for that broad grin.

At the Maxwell club Saturday evening Messrs. Hyatt and Hagelin attacked the unanimity jury system. Light and Belden favored it.

Prof. Robbins: (in quiz, to Mr. Longfellow) "What would you do if a convicted murderer should become insane?"

Mr. Longfellow: "Wait 'till he got over it—then hang him."

The Seniors sent for another order of caps and canes Wednesday.

The students of the University should not miss the opportunity of hearing James Whitcomb Riley read from his own works at the Lansing, Monday night, Nov 22nd. Advance sale of seats at Harley's drug store beginning November 15th.

Local and Personal.

If you want a shave, go to Westerfield's.

Otis G. Whipple is walking about with a cane as a result of a practice game in football.

Wanted: a good man to solicit among students. 1417 O street.

The Delians living on 16th street have arranged a special program for November 19th.

DeLoss T. Smith sells and repairs watches jewelry, etc. 1140 O St.

The Co-op is selling stationary at a very low figure.

Miss Mabel Thomas spent Sunday with her parents in South Omaha.

Scott & Shannon, tonsorial artists. S. E. corner 12th & O sts Give us a call

Dr. Clyde Davis, dentist, 4th floor Richards blk.

Just received 200 pairs of ladies' university gymnasium shoes which we are selling at 75c. Sanderson, Schureman & Davis, 1213 O.

L. J. Abbott recently gave the teachers of Lawrence county, S. D., a talk on "Source Method in History." Local papers speak of his address as being exceedingly interesting.

This Shoe is black Box Calf, Coin toe $2. Foot Form Store, 1213 O.

Students if you want your shoes made to order, or if you want your shoes repaired, go to J. H. Pettit, 1438 O st. All work is guaranteed.

Strength in Poetry.

Those who study James Whitcomb Riley's poems,—and there are thousands,—recognize in them a merit deep and lasting. His works have even more than beauty; hidden in the homely garb of rustic speech are words wise as Socrates uttered. His Hoosier dialect holds the wealth of Plato's wisdom, and philosophy as profound as Herbert Spencer's, and much more comforting. The dialect poem, 'My Philosophy' is the essence of many volumes of sermons. 'Beautiful Hands' and 'Illeles' suggest and equal Tennyson's 'Maud' in thought and passion. 'In the Dark,' 'The Lost Kiss' and 'A Vision of Summer' are Longfellow almost beyond his best. Scattered here and there are many passages worthy of Wordsworth.