When buying presents for your friends at Christmas probably the first thing that suggests itself to your mind is a book. The reason is patent. The person who will not be interested in a book of some kind is the exception and not the rule. Then again the price of books accommodates itself to the purses of all. You can buy a book for a child for a nickle or a dollar. You can get them for the "grown ups" from a dime to what you please. The popularity which our Book and Stationery Departments have always enjoyed is owing to the fact that we always have endeavored to give our customers the best value obtainable at the lowest possible profit. This year we are in better shape than ever before to supply the wants of our patrons. We can supply you with all the latest books such as Quo Vades by Lienkievicz, Choir Invisible by Jas. Lane Allen, Christian Captains Courageous by Kipling at way down prices. We have cloth bound books at 10c and upward. Poets 35c, gilt edged poets 50c. Sets of Macaulay, Hall Caine, Marie Corelli, Cooper's Sea Tales and Leather Stocking Tales, 5 vol. sets, bound in cloth and boxed at 98c per set. These are but a few samples of our prices.
