

made one of his characteristic, forceful and eloquent speeches. He did not do himself justice, however, owing to a lack of preparation.

The following are the sixteen, in their order given places by the judges: J. D. Denison, R. S. Baker, G. E. Kindler, E. B. Perry, C. W. Taylor, G. E. Hager, C. E. Matson, A. L. Deal, J. A. Maguire, O. W. Meier, F. G. Hawxby, H. E. Sackett, W. L. McNaughton, E. F. Warner, J. H. Kemp, Miss Bertha Stull. The HESPERIAN gives below the marking of the judges for the first sixteen speakers.

	Anslay	Barbour	Caldwell	Hill	Huffman	Luckey	Reese	Sherman	Ward	Points ag'ts	Rank
A. L. Deal	140	111	115
W. McNaughton	98	106	112
G. E. Hager		127
J. D. Denison		150
J. H. Kemp		104
C. W. Taylor		125
J. A. Maguire			110	155
E. B. Perry			125	150
O. W. Meier			120	125
H. E. Sackett	180	160			97
Miss Stull	135	145			94
E. F. Warner	170	141			18
F. G. Hawxby			115			99	119
C. E. Matson			115			105	130
G. E. Kindler	200	167			137
R. S. Baker	9	279			185

Basket Ball Games.

On Monday evening Dec. 13th the 5 and 8 o'clock class teams played a very one sided game. The only explanation for the score of 26 to 3 is found in the fact that the 8 o'clocks were clearly outclassed by the 5 o'clocks. The line up:—

5 o'clock		8 o'clock
Hill (capt.)	Forward	Sayer (capt.)
Story	"	Heffner
Moore	Center	Aden
Andreson W. E.	Guard	Nielson

Andreson R. D. Guard Hanlen
Officers:— Referee, Stebbins; umpires, Yoder and Perry; timekeeper, Ryan; scorer, Hopewell.

The game Tuesday evening between the 8 and 11 o'clocks was devoid of all interest. The only features were the fouls. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the 8 o'clocks. The line up:—

Hunt (capt.)	Forward	Perry (capt.)
Holben	"	Ryan
Corey	Center	Rochon
Sams	Guard	Sackett
Guteleban	"	Lowrie
Burk	Sub.	Heuck

Officers:— Referee, Stebbins; umpires, Hill and Allen; scorer, Yoder.

One of the hardest fought basket ball contests ever played in the Armory took place Monday evening between the 5 and 11 o'clock class teams. The following was the line-up.

5 o'clock		11 o'clock
Hill (capt.)	Forward	Yoder
Story	"	Ryan
Moore	Center	Roschon
Andreson, W. E.	Guard	Sackett
Andreson, R. D.	"	Perry (capt.)
Ryan	Sub	Hopewell

The game was one sided from the first, the score being 24 to 0 in favor of the five o'clocks.

The five o'clocks now have the enviable title of "University Team." Dr. Hastings is trying to arrange for a game with the West Side Chicago team Jan. 3. There will be a game between the Y. M. C. A. team and the University team some time during January.

The best place in the city to get a good sleighing outfit is at Argubright's 212 N 12 St. He will treat you right.

Dr. Ketchum, Oculist and Aurist, Richards' Block treats diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, and is fully equipped with instruments for fitting glasses without mydriatics. All fees reasonable.

The Unions had a most enjoyable sleigh-ride last Tuesday evening. About thirty were out to enjoy the fine evening. Dr. Bessey entertained the entire party by giving them a ten o'clock lunch. It was almost midnight before the last song had been sung.