Physical examinations will be given to base ball men this week and next.

'Bill' Melford has begun practicing throwing in the armory. He is expected to be one of the crack pitchers of the '98 ball team.

Dr Hastings is considering the publication of an Athletic Annual in which will be given all the events records etc. This will give an impetus to athletics and should be heartily supported by all students.

The University championship basket ball games have been scheduled. The first took place last Tuesday evening. The remaining games will be played on Monday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Manager Denison is in correspondance with nearly every prominent western institution on the subject of games. He hopes to arrange an early southern trip and a later eastern trip. Some good guarantees have already been secured.

The number of candidates for places on the '98 team is exceedingly encouraging to Manager Denison and Captain Gordon who are sparing no efforts to make the coming season the most successful in the history of University base ball.

Indoor base ball practice will begin next week. The University championship series will take place the latter part of January. The games will probably be scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 26 and Friday, Jan. 28. Proceeds of this indoor base ball series will be used in purchasing suits.

Preliminaries for Charter day indoor exhibition is now being held. The first contest took place last Saturday, the event being the standing broad jump. The three highest contestants were, Swallow, 29 ft. 2½ inches; Lemars, 27 feet ¾ inches; W. E. Andreson, 27 ft 6¼ inches. The next contest will take place Saturday Jan. 15. Event, hop, step and jump.

The lovers of basket ball have another treat in store. A game has been arranged between the Omaha Y. M. C. A. team and a picked team of the University, to be played at the gymnasium Saturday evening Jan 15. The line up for Omaha:—left forward, H. B. Stillson; right forward, Gus Miller; center, A. C. ### A. A. Bischoff Elected Manager.

At a meeting of the Athletic Board last Saturday A. A. Bischoff was elected football manager for '98. Mr. Bischoff is a member of Sigma Chi and is especially prominent in social circles. He graduates this year with an A. B. and will return next year to take law. As Mr. Bischoff is thoroughly a University man and a good financier his election to this responsible position is satisfactory to all football enthusiasts.

Palladian Special Program.

The Palladian society will give a special program this evening in the University chapel. It will be in the nature of a farce, written by William Dean Howells. The name of the farce is "The Unexpected Guest."
